Rattler in Pendleton.

(Pendleton Live Wire.)

Reminding one of frontier days in Pendleton, a huge rattlesnake made its appearance within the city limits this morning. The snake is dead, pluckily killed by Mrs. Elmer Turner, who discovered it in the front yard of her home in Byers grove.

The reptile made its appearance early today. Mrs. Turner was attracted to the scene by the barking of a dog which was about to attack the snake. The latter was coiled to strike.

Picking up a huge stone, Mrs. Turner hurled it at the snake. Those having comments to make on the marksmanship of the "weaker sex" should reserve them for future dates for Mrs. Turner hit Mr. Rattler the first whizlop. He died.

The snake, after rattles had been removed, measured 39 1-4 inches in length. In its largest part it measured five inches in diameter. It had five rattles and a button.
