Thelsis THEATRE

"EDISON" FEATURE.

"The Cardinal's Edict".....Edison
 A magnificently mounted drama treating of one of the wonderful incidents in the life of the great Cardinal Richelieu. It is historical and replete with thrilling situations.

"Lean Wolf's End".....Kalem
 A splendid Indian story. Lean Wolf, enacted by that great actor, Frank Lanning. One of the finest Indian pictures ever put on.

"That City Feller".....Selig
 Comedy, drama, and love all in one. The wonderful intelligence of a collie dog saves the day for the "city feller" who has aroused the jealousies of the "country fellers." This is an exceptionally good one.

Illustrated song by C. P. Ferrin

PEACH DAY IS PLANNED.

Freewater Aims to Have Special Fruit Celebration.

Pendleton, Ore., Aug. 10.—(Special)—That "Peach Day," which is to be observed at Freewater on August 24 this year, will be an occasion worth while is declared by Attorney J. P. Neil of that town who is a member of the executive committee and has been in Pendleton today.

"The committee is planning to have the forenoon program devoted to Commercial club affairs," says Neil, "and representatives and delegations will be asked to attend from all the towns of Umatilla county and from many of the towns of eastern Washington. Secretary Keefe, of the Pendleton Commercial club, will have a prominent part on the program."

Aside from the Commercial club men other speakers at the "Peach Day" program will be Water Commissioner Cochran of La Grande, who will discuss water right, County Judge J. W. Maloney, who will talk on roads, and other speakers who will deal with various topics pertaining to horticulture.

It is the intention of the "Peach Day" managers to make the celebration the best Freewater has ever given, both from an entertainment standpoint and from the standpoint of benefit. To this end speakers are being secured who will talk on subjects of direct interest to those who will be in attendance.
