CRIME VICTIMS BURIED TODAY

BODIES TO BE LAID SIDE BY SIDE IN BAKER CEMETERY.

Lodges and Band to Participate in the Funeral Services.

La Grande people are advised, through notices from Baker, that the funeral of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mansfield, who were well known locally, would be held Friday afternoon. The announcement says:

The funeral of Louis Mansfield, murderer and suicide, and the wife he killed will be held Friday afternoon at the First M. E. church. Mansfield and the victim of his insane jealousy will be buried together.

The services will be held at 2:30 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. D. C. McCollm, pastor of the Methodist church. The Baker Concert band will attend the funeral of their unfortunate member and his wife, as will also the Modern Woodmen of America, of which he was a member, and the Fraternal Brotherhood, an order to which Mrs. Mansfield belonged.

It was to get a dress to wear to the meeting of this order, according to the statement of the woman's father, that Mrs. Mansfield went to her home the night of the tragedy. Following the funeral services the bodies of the jealous husband and his victim will be laid side by side to their final rest in the family lot in Mt. Hope cemetery.

COVE STARS OF OLD TO PLAY

SUNDAY WILL SEE GAME THAT SHOULD BE FAST.

Old Aggregation Which Did Things for Cove to Play Sunday.

Conley, Carter, Myers, Kall, Walters, Allen, Smith, and many other members of the star Cove aggregation playing together in 1910 when they won about everything coming their way, will play in La Grande next Sunday when the balance of the pennant winning team of La Grande, augmented by other players, will clash with the Cove team. With the exception of about three players, the game will see much the same lineup for La Grande that was used in the league games. At Cove a few weeks ago, La Grande won from this same team by a small margin and it is believed next Sunday's game will be an exciting one.
