TRUST MONOPOLIES FATHERED BY KINGS' GRABS

As Present Day Trade Kings Want It All, So With Old Time Kings—What Pulpit Themes are for Tomorrow in La Grande.

Last Sunday evening Dr. Gillilan said in his sermon while speaking of kings ancient and modern: "The ancient kings were monopolists. They wanted the whole of the world to themselves. They sent out their armies to conquer, capture, kill and exploit everywhere. If they did not establish a protectorate over the countries conquered they planned a system of tribute taking so that everything possible was coined into money for their treasury to feed their desires. Then, the business of the captain was to drive the often unwilling troops with whips and goads as d'd Xerxes his Persians in Thermopylae's day."

"That was in the time of the absolute, unresisted monarch, the days of acknowledged barbarism. Now, in our days of superior enlightenment, in days and time of boasted freedom, men are kings; whosoever will (or can) may proclaim himself lord of some industry. He may be steel magnate, oil baron, lumber king, or the conscienceless boss of some other means of labor or bread winning industry. His soldiers fight the elements for him as did the minions of Alexander or Caesar in obeying their master's commands. These modern soldiers are set to the task of accumulating dollars for the treasuries of the modern masters. So nearly is the wage earner unrequited that he is often poorer at the close of the year than when the year began. But, see how civilized we are today! Instead of the dreadful captain of industry harrying the lagging footsteps of the anaemic army of underfed thousands, with spears, goads and whips, they are urged on by the cries of wives never rested and by the wails of babes ever hungry. The whips are the broken and lacerated heart-strings of loved ones; but it is a battle nevertheless. The rapacious money maker must have his desire no matter at whose cost. He can give an endowment for a college or he can provide an organ or a library for an institution eleemosynary or religious and have a lot of unthinking preachers laud him to the skies while he plans another means of entering Greece. Verily he has his reward here on earth. He will get his punishment by and by.

"God is not mocked, for 'Whosoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.' Such men rule by the false maxim, 'Might makes right.'"

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, Aug. 12.—President Taft is scheduled to go to Ocean Grove, N. J., Tuesday to address the Methodists; camp meeting there and later in the week he expects to go to Beverly to begin his belated summer vacation.

Admiral Togo, whose visit to the United States is attracting much attention, will remain in New York City until Wednesday when he will go on to Boston. He will remain in Boston two days, visiting the Charlestown navy yard, Harvard university and other places of interest in the vicinity, departing Friday evening for Niagara Falls.

The annual month of rifle competitions for the picked snipers of all branches of the United States service and the militia organizations of the different states will begin on the ranges at Camp Perry Monday with the opening of the 29th tournament of the National Rifle association and the ninth matches of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle practice.

The political calendar of the week calls for several meetings of interest to the leaders of both parties. Kentucky democrats will assemble in Louisville Tuesday to formulate the platform on which the state ticket will make the fight for election next fall. In Nebraska the same day the state primaries of all parties will be held for the nomination of candidates for the minor state offices to be filled at the next election. At Harrisburg there is to be a meeting of the Democratic State Central committee of Pennsylvania to consider proposed changes in the party rules and to carry out the plan for the redistricting of the state. At the same time and place there is to be a meeting of democratic editors to form a state league. At Columbus, O., an outing is to be held by the Jefferson club with William J. Bryan as the guest of honor. The club is an "insurgent" democratic organization and is understood to be opposed to Governor Harmon of Ohio for the presidential nomination.

The conventions of the week will include those of the International Typographical union at San Francisco, the American Press Humorists Association at Boston, the Irish Catholic Benevolent union at Toledo, the Loyal Order of Moose at Detroit, the American Pharmaceutical association at Boston, and the National Negro Business league at Little Rock.

Wooden Baseball Team (1)

Spokane, Aug. 12.—Walter Shore's Wonders, a team of local men wearing artificial limbs, and Joseph Adams' Mastadons, composed of nine men who weighed 2,825 pounds collectively, played a match game of baseball at Recreation park, Spokane, on August 5 for the benefit of Viola M. Schumacher, 16 years of age, who was crippled in a railway accident last March. The game was largely attended and provided funds to pay the girl's hospital bills and buy an artificial leg. The Wonders claimed the game by a score of 37 to 19, but Fred S. Radcliff, formerly sheriff of Whitman county, Wash., declares the Wonders got a away with it by the score of 23 to 7. Radcliff, who weighs 410 pounds, caught for the fat boys, the pitcher being Dr. T. E. Callahan, 290 pounds, who played professional ball in Baltimore, Mr. years ago. The lightest man on the Mastadons' team was George Brownlee, 240 pounds, others weighing from 250 to 300 pounds. Eight players on the Wonders' team wear artificial legs and Manager Shore has a wooden arm. Both teams are pleased over the showings made and another game may be played in two weeks.
