TRY HOME RULE LAW

SISTER COUNTY WILL HOLD AN ELECTION IN NOVEMBER.

First of Its Kind in That County to Be Held in Small Towns.

Baker, Aug. 16.—(Special)—The first local option elections held under the new "home rule" law in Baker county, and possibly the first in this state will be held on November 7th next, in the Panhandle country. There will be four special elections covering Eagle and Pine valleys and the towns of Richland and Halfway.

Petitions for the elections were placed in circulation today in the two valleys. When ten per cent of the registered voters in the precincts affected are secured they will be presented to the county court for the ordering of a special election.

Hitherto Richland and Halfway, although incorporated towns have been included in the outside precincts and have been governed by them. In 1908 elections were held in Pine No. 1, Pine No. 2, Cornucopia, and Eagle valley precincts and the country was voted dry. Last year special local option elections were held in Pine valley. It was voted wet but a flaw in the proceedings invalidated the election. None the less some places were opened up relying upon public sentiment to sustain them, and there has followed a warfare against the saloons that at the last session of the grand jury resulted in several indictments for violation of the law.

The result of the new elections will be watched with great interest.

MINSTREL SHOW COMING

MANAGER STEWARD ANNOUNCES FIRST ATTRACTION.

Richards & Pringle Will Show at the Steward That Date.

There is a feast in store for the laugh-hungry at the Steward on Wednesday, the 23rd, when Richards & Pringle's famous minstrels make their appearance.

The mere announcement of this company's coming is usually sufficient to pack the theatre. Little need be said for this company, for they have been coming here for over a quarter of a century and their merit is well known. In keeping with the policy of the management everything is brand new. While many of the old favorites still remain, many new faces will be seen in the circle this season. A great deal of attention has been paid to the singing and dancing portion of the program, and lovers of the old-time minstrelsy will find much to please them. The vaudeville portion of the program will be the most expensive ever carried by a minstrel company. Fred Simpson's challenge band of 25 solo musicians are a prominent feature and the management throws down the gauntlet to any minstrel company to produce its equal. Watch for the big free street parade at noon. There will be a band concert in front of the theatre at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, and the program will range from rag-time to grand opera.

SECTION BOSS DEMENTED

WRITES QUEER LETTERS AND THEN DENIES THEM.

Unity Foreman, P. Garvey, Taken to Baker on Insanity Charge.

P. Garvey, for 14 years section boss for the O.-W. R. & N. at Unity, was taken to Baker yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs McCord and Herbert on an insanity charge, instigated, it is said, by employes of the road. Garvey was removed from his position on August 8th and since that time has written letters to the company demanding pay for the months of September and October, 1909, which according to the story he told today is due him. "If I was going to imagine anything, wouldn't I imagine something more than just two months' pay?" he demanded.

According to Garvey's story he is also accused of having written letters charging that employes of the road are forced to pay tribute to someone higher up in order to hold their positions. He denies that he ever wrote the letters.
