HOME OF HIGH CLASS PHOTO PLAY AND MUSIC.

"The White Medicine Man"..... Selig Hypnotism and the superstitions of the Yuma Indians have a great deal to do with this story. It is wonderfully conceived. One of Selig's best.

"The Infant at Snakeville"..... Essanay

The stage coach leaves Mrs. Graham's baby with the cowboys. They are compelled to do the duties necessary to the infant's welfare. To see them attempt to do it is to scream. "The New Cook"..... Kalem Papa throws his daughter's suitor out of doors, but said suitor returns in the disguise of a cook and is engaged by the irate parent. When he starts in to cook, "Look out, it's coming!" the would-be cook actually wins out.

Illustrated song—"Brocho Buster" sung by Miss Garrick..... Matinees Mr. Ferrin..... Evenings Musical Director Chas. E. King
