NORTHWEST TO HEAR TAFT ON ALASKA QUEST

BELIEVED HE WILL DODGE JUDICIARY RECALL

Big Audiences Looked Out for Itinerary—South Left Alone—Is Deemed Solid for Him—Northwest Debatable Ground; Pointed to Spend Time in Michigan, Too.

Beverly, Aug. 28.—Openly preparing for a vigorous campaign for a second term when he invades the west and northwest this fall, President Taft today announced he would devote just two weeks to rest. No visitors will be welcome.

On his trip he will defend his acts and assail the motives of Senator La Follette, and invite progressives' support. In the west and northwest this fall, President Taft today announced he would devote just two weeks to rest. No visitors will be welcomed.

In the northwest the Alaska trouble will be his subject and he will attempt to show that he is doing everything to safeguard Alaska from monopolies.

Reciprocity Uppermost. He will also devote much time throughout his trip to reciprocity. It is thought he will sidetrack the judiciary recall but otherwise will defend his other veto messages and outline the issues for the coming campaign.

Announcement is made that the proposed trip to the south is abandoned and that the time will be devoted to Michigan where the progressives are active.

The president believes the southern states are safe for him and that the middle west and far west are debatable ground.

His itinerary has been arranged with an eye to big audiences. He will leave here for Washington September 15 and return to Washington October 31st.

Among the cities that Taft will visit are Detroit, Chicago, Oklahoma City, Denver, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, Portland, San Francisco and Seattle.

To Settle Boundary Dispute.

Red Wing, Minn., Aug. 28.—Official representatives of the Wisconsin and Minnesota are to meet here tomorrow to engage in a joint inspection of the disputed boundary line dividing the two states at Lake Pepin and in the Duluth-Superior harbor. It is the desire of both commonwealths that the controversy may be settled without recourse to the federal courts.

LOVER SPURNS WILLIAM LEE

CONFESSED MURDERER OF PAR-ENTS RECITES DETAILS

Second Confession Given Today—Girl He Loved Turns Him Away.

Jefferson, Ind., Aug. 28.—Mina Taylor who was to wed William Lee on the night he killed his father, mother and brother to secure funds to set up himself with, today repudiated Lee and declared she would not stand by him any longer.

Lee signed a new confession today, reciting the triple murder in detail. He charged his father with cruelty to the children and said he and his brother had long ago planned to murder him.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 28.—An enormous crowd was in attendance today at the official opening of the Canadian National Exhibition by his excellency, Earl Grey, governor general of Canada. The exhibition will continue until September 11. Every department of the big fair is filled this year with attractive exhibits. A notable feature for the entertainment of the visitors will be the reproduction of the coronation procession and the Festival of Empire.

JAILED FOES OF HANFORD OUT

BAIL WILL BE FURNISHED BY FOUR IN JAIL.

Arrests Will Lead to Arraignment Next Wednesday Sometime.

Seattle, Aug. 28.—Councilman Oliver Erickson, one of the nine arrested Saturday charged with "Conspiracy Against Justice," in the fight to impeach and remove Federal Judge Hanford, and two others who went to jail, today said he probably would give $5,000 bail.

Deputy Sheriff Hugh Kelly and Paul Mohr will do the same.

The defendants will be arraigned before the federal court Wednesday. United States Commissioner Totten states the cases will probably be tried within eight months, when the federal grand jury convenes. Judge Hanford refused to comment on the matter and said he had nothing to do with the arrests. The charges are the result of a mass meeting when the judge was hanged in effigy because he issued an injunction in the interurban railroad case.

Retail Shoe Dealers.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Members from all over the state were on hand today when the annual convention of the New York Retail Shoe Dealers' association was called to order by President Fred Bealer of Jamestown. Several matters of importance to the trade are slated for consideration by the convention.

TOWN MOURNS 25 DEAD.

Cannonsburg, Pa., Aug. 28.—This city is a sorrowful sight today. Funerals of the 26 victims of the panic in the moving picture show which was caused when a film broke and a boy yelled "fire" Saturday are being held today. A score of the seriously injured are in the hospital and 30 are injured in minor ways. Rewards are offered today for the arrest of the persons who started the panic.

KRUTTSCHNITT MAY NOT CONFER WITH LEADERS AFTER ALL

Strike Will Be Deferred Until Thursday Illinois Central Men Anxious to Walk Out--Federation System Only Real Stumbling Block

GENERAL FEELING OF IMPROVEMENT AND MANY EXPRESS BELIEF THERE WILL BE NO STRIKE IF KRUTTSCHNITT WILL CONFER WITH FEDERATION SYSTEM OFFICIALS ON THURSDAY—KRUTTSCHNITT TALKS.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 28.—Julius Kruttschnitt is here but will not confer with the federation shopmen until Thursday if he confers at all.

President Reguin, of the federation said today that he expected Kruttschnitt would receive a delegation of presidents of the craft unions involved and said he believed that the federation's officials will be recognized and finally dealt with directly. He intimated that otherwise there will be a strike.

Reguin said: "Kruttschnitt has the reputation of being a man of his word. He has been quoted as saying he is willing to meet anyone to discuss this matter. If this is true we won't have any further trouble. The men, up and down the coast, are willing to await the results of this conference and I believe that danger of a strike is largely past. Of course should Kruttschnitt refuse to deal with the federation the men in the shops would undoubtedly take measures to protect themselves."

Kruttschnitt in a long statement today said he would probably meet the representatives of the employes but said nothing concerning whether he would meet them as individuals or as representatives of the federation.

Illinois Central Strike Near.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—A strike of 4,000 Illinois Central shopmen, members of the system federation, is threatened within three days. The men voted to strike unless their demands are granted.

J. F. McCreery of Paducah, president of the Illinois Central federation, arrived today to confer with Assistant General Manager Thomas Foley regarding the demands, which include recognition of the federation, increased wages and shorter hours. The railroad intimates it will refuse to treat with the federation.

Unmarried Men Laid Off.

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—Two hundred and fifty Southern Pacific employes, including some clerks and shopmen, were laid off today. Most of those laid off were unmarried men.

UNPRINTABLE TESTIMONY AT TRIAL

New York, Aug. 28.—Unprintable and vile testimony was given today at the murder trial of Paul Geldel, the bellboy accused of the murder of Millionaire Jackson. He said that Jackson frequently gave him money gifts and that he went to Jackson's room for money promised him on the day he killed the millionaire. The nature of the testimony contains the black horse, the defense has promised to introduce, and tended to prove that criminal acts were committed frequently. It was the defense's big card and created a sensation among those who were allowed to hear it.

BURNS IS NOT PROBING GRAFT

Portland, Aug. 28.—Detective Burns arrived here today from California, and said he came to straighten out the tangle between his local office and ear sin police department officials. He denied he came here to investigate the police department government. He had nothing new to say on the Times dynamiting case.

LAWSON RUNS A LOTTERY.

Financier Arrested and Fined for Violation of Laws. Plymouth, Mass., Aug. 28.—Thomas Lawson, the well known financier, was today convicted and fined $10 for operating a lottery. He was interested in the county fair of his county and devised a scheme whereby each visitor would be entitled to a chance on a horse and buggy. When the gates were opened and the lottery started Lawson was arrested. He announced that he will appeal.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON A SUICIDE

REVOLVER BULLET ENDS LIFE OF DESPONDENT YOUNG MAN.

New York, Aug. 28.—Before any of the hundred persons who witnessed the deed could intervene, Arthur Velt, aged 22, the son of B. C. Velt, the millionaire head of the lighterage department of the Standard Oil, committed suicide today in the financial district by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. It is believed that a quarrel with his wife was the cause of the deed.

SAYS MEN WILL ORGANIZE.

Gompers Will Address Workers on Authority of the Judiciary.

Seattle, Aug. 28.—Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here today and will devote much of his speech tonight to the discussion of the authority of the judiciary. The theme was suggested by the arrest of nine Seattle men for urging the recall of Judge Hanford. Gompers believes that the railroad men will organize a system of federation despite the railroads or their actions.

Mrs. Johnson Is Ill.

London, Aug. 28.—The seriousness of his wife's illness is said to be likely to cause Johnson to cancel his previous engagements including the establishment of training quarters and may postpone the Wells bout.

HEAVY SMOKE TO THE SOUTH

Fires in the forest south of La Grands and in close proximity to the city is indicated by a heavy pall of smoke hanging over the mountains to the south this afternoon. There is no report of the fire and officials are on the alert to learn particulars concerning it. The nearby mountains have been obstructed from view by the smoke all day.

BEATTIE BOWS HEAD IN SHAME

MOTHER OF DEAD GIRL TESTIFIES AT THE TRIAL

MOTHER SUSPECTED BANKER OF HAVING COMMITTED CRIME

Believed Siren Will Not Be Allowed to Tell Her Story to the Jury as Defense Chance Sought—Mrs. Beattie Broken Hearted on Learning of Her Husband's Physical Condition.

Chesterfield, Va., Aug. 28.—It was announced today that Beulah Blanford, for whose companionship Beattie is alleged to have killed his wife, probably will not be called as a witness in the young banker's trial. Fear that her love for Beattie or regard for his money may interfere with her testimony, is given as a reason. It is also feared that the defense would get a chance to impress on the jury the impropriety of convicting Beattie on his sweetheart's testimony.

Mother of Wife Testifies.

Mrs. Owen, mother of the murdered woman, was on the witness stand in the Beattie trial today. She told of frequent crying spells her daughter had after finding her husband was suffering from a certain disease.

Shows Evidence of Shame.

Beattie hid his head when the woman first began but later watched her with clenched hands.

Prosecutor Wendenburg developed the fact that Mrs. Owen had not been invited to go onto the night of the tragedy, and that she accused Beattie of killing his wife when the corpse was brought home. She was unshaken during the cross examination.

Vancouver Exhibition Opens.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 28.—The second Vancouver exhibition was formally opened this morning by Premier McBride. The exhibition will continue until next Monday and from present indications it is destined to eclipse the exhibition of last year both in the number and variety of exhibits and in the matter of attendance. The show of fruits, agricultural products, live stock, poultry and machinery is the best ever displayed in British Columbia. Hundreds of visitors from across the border are expected here next Friday, which has been set aside by the exhibition management as "American Day."

Busy Week for Laurier.

St. John, N. B., Aug. 28.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier came to St. John today to begin a week's campaign in the maritime provinces. In addition to this city the premier is scheduled for addresses in Digby, Halifax and New Glasgow, Nova Scotia; Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Moncton, N. B.
