MEN URGED TO WITHDRAW "UNFAIR" DEMANDS TO ROADS

Five Presidents Arriving at San Francisco Today Are Doomed to Disappointment—Omaha Officials Urge Men to Drop Some Features of Demands—Illinois Central Is Stubborn

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 30.—In a statement to the Union Pacific shopmen here today, Assistant General Manager Fuller, who has charge of the Omaha shops, urged that the shopmen's demands be withdrawn as they were unfair. He explained the railroad's viewpoint and put the matter up to the workmen.

Vice President Hohler, discussing the situation said the strike would mean only more men would join those already laid off, owing to the slack times.

Strikebreakers Recruited.

Los Angeles, Aug. 30.—Declaring that Strikebreaker James Farley is in Los Angeles for the purpose of recruiting men for the Harriman lines in the event of a walkout, President Misner of the Los Angeles labor council came out flat-footed today, favoring an immediate strike.

Presidents Reach Frisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 30.—International president of five great crafts will arrive here this afternoon from the east to confer with Julius Kruttschnitt, concerning the shopmen's demands which threaten war. They are Kille of the blacksmiths; Franklin, of the colliemakers; Ryan, of the carmen; O'Sullivan, of the metal workers, and O'Connell of the machinists. It is a foregone conclusion that they are doomed to disappointment, unless they abandon their position as representatives of the federation and enter the conference as individual heads of their crafts. Officials say that the slack business make it the worst time in the year for the men to expect to win.

Officials in Conference.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—High officials of the largest railroads in the country, comprising the American Railway Association on relations among railroads are holding a conference at the Blackstone hotel today, endeavoring to formulate a general policy for the railroads regarding the recognition of

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN.

United States senator from Oregon who is one of higher ups in new-fangled branch of the democratic party giving much time to bettering political conditions throughout the country today.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, DIAZ OF AMERICAN LABOR FEDERATION.

President of American Federation of Labor who is assailed and accused of buying and threatening to kill to get evidence in dynamiting case—Mr. Gompers will be in Portland tomorrow night, a fact which stimulated Burns' attack today.

GOMPERS CHARGED WITH THREATENING TO KILL

Portland, Aug. 30.—Anticipating a possible attack on him by Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who speaks here tomorrow night, Burns the detective, threw a few hot shots at Gompers today. He said the defense of the McNamaras were purchasing evidence and threatening to kill when they can't buy it, and in other ways attempting to obstruct the prosecution.

ASSERTS TAFT "BULLHEADED"

CLAPP CALLS PRESIDENT PEEVISH AND FRETFUL.

Believes President Hasn't a Ghost of a Show to Win in 1912.

Long Beach, Cal., Aug. 30.—"Knowledge that he hasn't a ghost of a show for re-election has made President Taft ill-tempered, dictatorial and bull-headed," said United States Senator Clapp, disseminator of the doctrines of the progressive republicans, before he boarded the train for Fresno where he is scheduled to speak tonight.

THREE BIRDMEN DARE FLIGHTS

OCEAN-TO-OCEAN FLIGHTS TO BE MADE SOON.

Start to Be Enacted on the Pacific Coast—Prizes Large.

New York, Aug. 30.—Three aviators are out today for the $50,000 prize offered for a coast-to-coast flight. They are Robert Fowler, of Los Angeles, backed by Fred Grundy, a California sportsman; C. H. Rogers, who carried off the distance honors at the Chicago aviation meet, backed by the Cash Register company, and Harry Atwood is the third. The start is planned from the Pacific coast.

SHOAF'S HAT IS FOUND.

Los Angeles, Aug. 30.—A battered hat and a bludgeon, found the morning following the disappearance of Writer Shoaf, are today in the police department and Shoaf's father, who is working on the case, examined them. He declined to state whether it would help him in the hunt for the man believed to have killed Shoaf.

AMERICAN MEDICAL SCHOOLS REPRESENTED

Berlin, Aug. 30.—Several of the leading medical schools and societies of America are represented by delegates at the third International Laryngological congress, which assembled in Berlin today for a session of seven days.

JUSTICE BROWN ASSAILS RECALL

NEWEST SCHEME OF POLITICAL SCHEMER HIS VIEW.

BAR ASSOCIATION HEARS UTTERANCES OF LEARNED JUDGE

Recall for Certain Officers Useful Although Clumsy but is a Menace to the Judiciary—Judge Should Not Be Blamed, Responsible in Decision to Popularity of Masses, He Says.

Boston, Aug. 30.—Declaring that the recall is "somewhat clumsy and an expensive device, and that it may prove of great value in disposing of unpopular officials," Justice Brown of the United States supreme court before the American Bar association today denounced the application of the recall to the judiciary. He said:

"No judge is a fair judge without the courage to render an unpopular decision. The recall in such cases could easily cover gross abuses.

"It is said that the idea that judges should be compelled to vindicate their right to a seat by appealing to the public is the last recourse of a political fellow." He endorsed the commission form of government.

After Brown's address the convention adopted a resolution urging the passage of laws whereby wife deserters should be paid salaries during jail terms and the money to go to the support of their wives.

Alabama G. O. P. Meeting.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 30.—The advance guard of delegates has arrived in Birmingham for the republican state convention which will meet tomorrow to select a new state committee and chairman and to discuss preliminary plans for the next campaign. Harmony will be the keynote of the gathering. The differences which have split the party for a long time past and which for a time threatened its total ruination appear to have been smoothed over and it is believed the convention will be a harmonious affair. The rivalry of the two opposing factions seeking control of the party probably will result in the selection of a compromise candidate for state chairman. The convention is expected to give a hearty endorsement to President Taft and his administration.

Weds Wisconsin "U" Professor.

Washington, Aug. 30.—A wedding of considerable interest here today was that of Miss Josie Helen Dodson, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Dodson of this city, and Professor Rollin Henry Denniston of the University of Wisconsin. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Donald C. McLeod of the First Presbyterian church performing the ceremony.

Pal Moore and Tommy Murphy Again

New York, Aug. 30.—At the National Sporting club tomorrow night Pal Moore, the little Britisher, and Tommy Murphy of this city are to mix it up for ten rounds in another effort to settle the question of relative supremacy. In their last bout several months ago Murphy had decidedly the better of it, but Moore believes that with another chance he can show himself to be at least the equal of the Harlem boy.

Oppose Re-election of Rogers.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 30.—At the annual convention here next week of the United National association of Postoffice Clerks a strenuous effort will be made to defeat the re-election of President Frank T. Rogers and other of the present national officers on the ground that they have been inactive and inefficient in promoting legislation desired by the membership.

MYSTERIOUS, BEARDED MAN SEEN BY WITNESSES FOR DEFENSE OF BEATTIE JR.

Chesterfield, Aug. 30.—Sensational testimony intended to corroborate

Beattie's story that a mysterious stranger shot Mrs. Beattie was given this afternoon by Eugene Hanshaw, who said he had seen a tall man, about 30 years old, with a beard, on the turnpike several times before the murder but never spoke. W. B. Howland, the next witness, told the same story, except that he added the man carried a shotgun on one occasion.

State Rests Case.

Chesterfield, Aug. 30.—The prosecution in the Beattie murder case rested shortly after noon today. Heavy rains today kept the crowd away. The testimony of young Alexander Robertson that blood spots were found at several places, indicating that the blood had dripped from the auto, as the defense contends, was upheld by

HENEY RETAINED IN JUDGE FRAY

NINE DEFENDANTS ARRAIGNED AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Aug. 30.—Francis J. Heney, it was announced today, will defend the nine defendants who it is alleged, "conspired to defeat justice," by hanging Judge Hanford in effigy, when the cases come to trial. Over 500 petitions to congress asking impeachment of Hanford have been circulated. The nine men charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice in the Hanford squabble were arraigned before United States Commissioner Totten. The hearing was postponed until Sept. 25 on the prosecution's request. Erickson, Kelley and Mohr who stayed in jail, furnished bail today.

New Face Powder Found.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The very latest in hand-made complexions comes in a disclosure of the secret of the Angoche women in South Africa, by U. S. Consul J. O. Spence, stationed at Lourengo, Marquex.

In order that American women may have the benefit of his discovery Consul Spence has forwarded to the consular bureau samples of the African wood and the grinding stone by the use of which is produced the powder utilized in the making of the face paste of the Angoche belles.

UMATILLA APPROPRIATION LIKELY TO BE TURNED TOWARD OREGON

Portland, Ore., Aug. 30.—Oregon may expect to receive $4,000,000 from the reclamation fund for the Umatilla project, provided the report of the supervising engineer meets the approval of Secretary of the Interior Fisher on his return in September. This information was given by C. J. Blanchard, statistician of the reclamation service who is here from Washington.

Blanchard says that Secretary Fisher will visit the Umatilla projects, the North Yakima and the Idaho projects before he returns east from Alaska.

Fisher Far In the Interior.

Seward, Alaska, Aug. 30.—Secretary of the Interior Fisher and party left this morning for a trip on the Alaska Northern railway as far as mile post 71. From there will return to Skagway by revenue cutter and then stop at Juneau. They will arrive at Seattle September 8th. A movement to have the government own and mine its coal is growing rapidly here.

one witness and discredited by Detective Jarrell.

Miss Louise Reeves, a close friend of Mrs. Beattie identified a hatpin found near the scene of the murder as that of Mrs. Beattie's.

Defense Scores First Round.

The first move of the defense was a victorious one. "On motion the judge struck out the testimony concerning the finding of Mrs. Beattie's hatpin and the account of the blood spots as well as the story of the failure to find a trail of the "tall man" whom Beattie said did the shooting.

Paul Beattie was called next. He denied that he talked to G. W. Booth, saying "he did not believe Henry committed the murder" and that "Henry loved his wife." Booth later contradicted Paul.

BUILDINGS UNROOFED AND THE STREETS ARE FLOODED.

Deathlist from Sunday Storm Continue to Grow This Late.

MORE STORMS STRIKE SOUTH

Charlotte, S. C., Aug. 30.—North Charlottes, a suburb of this city, is badly damaged today by a hurricane accompanied by a cloudburst which wrecked a church, unroofed several buildings and flooded the streets.

Sunday Storm's Toll Big.

Charleston, Aug. 30.—With reports from some points still to be received, the hurricane deathlist in this vicinity is about 20. Large crews are clearing away the debris. The storm-battered vessels arriving report wreckage is strewn along the coast. Three fishing parties of young men who left Savannah are missing, according to Savannah reports.

Can Steal Wireless.

Los Angeles, Aug. 30.—Superior Judge Bordwell today sustained the demurrer to the charge against Edwin Earl, publisher of a morning newspaper, charged with having disclosed the contents of a telegraphic wireless message.

The judge held that while the provisions of the code under which the indictment was brought, covered wireless messages, the code sought to prohibit wire employees of the companies. This means Earl will not be tried for publishing a message addressed to the Los Angeles Times in which a scheme to attack Earl's paper was stated.
