GOOD HOUSE GREETES LOWES

CAPACITY AUDIENCE HEARS POPULAR COMPANY.

"The Great Northwest" Will Be Given Tonight by Same Company.

A capacity audience gathered at Steward's opera house last night to greet the arrival of "The Boss of Bar Z Ranch." To say they spent an enjoyable evening would be putting it mildly. "The Boss of Bar Z Ranch" is of the type of plays that please the young and old alike and we are sorry that we do not have the opportunity of witnessing more plays of the kind. Miss Louise Lowe as Florence Curtiss, the boss of the ranch, was greeted by her large number of friends and at once proceeded to make more. The comedy honors were carried away by Miss Annie Girard and Mr. Lowe as Arabella Marshall and Doc Rye respectively. To say they were funny would be saying nothing for our sides are aching yet from laughing at their original love making.

Miss Mamie Haslam is a clever little actress who work we are anxious to see more of. And we say the same of W. R. Siegfried who did Billy Wilson. E. R. Howland as Frank Marvel and Val Howland as Richard Huntley also did some very clever work in their respective roles.

Tonight the great Canadian play, "The Great Northwest," will be presented for the first time in our city.

The play is by Eugene Walters, one of America's greatest writers and is sure to be a play that few can afford to miss.

A number of people were disappointed in not securing tickets last night as the tickets were all sold before the house opened at 8 o'clock.

THE ISIS HAS IT AGAIN.

Spot Light Classic Songs for Friday and Saturday by Popular Request.

By request of many of the patrons of the Isis theatre, Manager Sherwood will again put on the musical program which was so successfully rendered last Sunday.

This class of music is gaining hold of the public and the public is not slow in asking for more of it.

It is a good sign, and very evident that the best is none too good for La Grande. The Isis being able and all-way willing to give the best, concedes tonight a repetition of the music given last week end, and fulfilled with so much appreciation by those who heard it.

Today and Saturday, Miss Garrick will sing at matinees, "A May Morning" and Mr. Geo. Birnie will be heard Friday and Saturday nights in that magnificent song, "Out on the Deep."

"We believe, indeed, we know, that the quality of the offerings at the Isis theatre is far above the ordinary and we are glad to place it on record," said Manager Sherwood today.

The total number of old age pensioners in The United Kingdom at the end of March was: Men, 533,000; women, 547,411.

NEW TRACT ON COVE MARKETS

DUNHAM WRIGHT ACRES NAMES OF THE TRACT.

Twenty-Four Five-Acre Tracts Placed on Market This Morning.

Dunham Wright acres, consisting of 24 five-acre tracts, were dedicated and placed on the market this morning. The tract is located on the outskirts of Cove near the Bell fruit ranch and its location is well known to local people. Dunham Wright, a pioneer resident of Cove, who is now residing at Medical Springs is the owner but W. K. Davis of this city is the sales manager and has the disposition of the tracts in his hands. Applications for several of the tracts already brought to Mr. Davis indicates that the sale will be rapid. The price is graduated, ranging according to the nearness to water and other items that go to make one piece of land more desirable than others, and as all but a very small portion of the tract is under water ditch, the owners believe the tracts will sell rapidly. It is adjacent to some of the finest orchards in the world.

LOOKING OVER CONNERDALE

Spokane Man Thinks Well of the Future of La Grande

Arthur D. Jones, of Spokane, is in the city today looking over Connerdale. He has no hesitancy in expressing his faith in La Grande's future and believes it is destined to be the Spokane of the Oregon country.

HARMON ENTERS NEW ENGLAND

OHIO GOVERNOR GOES EAST TO FURTHER CAUSE.

Vice Presidential Question Also Bothers Eastern States.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 8.—The appearance of Governor Harmon of Ohio, here as the guest of honor and chief speaker at the barbecue outing to be given by the democratic organization of Boston has aroused considerable interest in political circles in New England. It will be the first speech that the Ohio governor has delivered in the east since he loomed up prominently as a presidential candidate. The fact that the names of two New Englanders—Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Governor Foss of Massachusetts—are mentioned in connection with the democratic nomination for vice president, lends additional interest to the Harmon visit. The politicians take the view that if either Baldwin or Foss is to be supported by New England for second place on the democratic ticket as is intimated, a western candidate for first place might naturally be expected to enjoy an advantage in this section over Governor Wilson of New Jersey, the nomination of whom for president would probably be followed by the selection of a western man for vice president.

His Drawback.
"Is he ignorant?"
"Very."
"But he may overcome it."
"Never. If Lloyd's were to examine him I am sure they would be willing to take the risk and insure it for him."
Couldn't Be Otherwise.
"You heard about so many children in the village having the mumps?"
"Yes."
"Well, they gave a party for them."
"It must have been a swell affair."

Suspicious.
Bank President—What's the matter, Bank Vice President—I was just thinking. I sat next to our cashier in church yesterday, and I don't quite like the way he sings "Will they miss me when I'm gone?"—Puck.
