HENEY UPHOLDS RECALL.

Noted Prosecutor Argues in Defense of Seattle Mobs.

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—In an interview here today F. J. Heney, the famous graft prosecutor, said that free speech in the case of Seattle means much and that the recent trouble between the Sattle and Hanford over the street car injunction, is a powerful argument in favor of the recall of the judiciary. He said: "The case is vital. The nine men arrested for conspiracy to obstruct justice, if convicted, means that a precedent will be established which will permit the judges under fire, to arrest and punish with jail sentences everyone who dares to criticize them. It will be the first step towards the establishment of a judicial kingdom and placing the judges on a throne where they can look down upon the people and fall them for just criticism."
