DIRT DEALER IN TROUBLE

JOSEPH MAN LEAVES TOWN UN-CEREMONIOUSLY.

Said That Insurance Companies Are After Real Estate Dealer.

Joseph, Ore., Sept. 13.—Special—J. D. Walck, a prominent real estate dealer here, has suddenly disappeared from his old haunts. The last seen of him was at the camp of the Comet Mining company, at the head of Wal-lowa lake, one of the companies in which he was interested, but inquiries there several days ago developed the fact that he left for parts unknown some time ago. Evidently he has taken the mountain route for the outside world, as no one here has any recollection of him leaving by rail.

It is rumored about town that several insurance companies for whom he acted as agent here, are after him for insurance premiums which he collected but failed to turn in. The clerk of the county is also on the lookout for him, claiming that he has thus far failed to turn over to the county the fees for fishing licenses which he issued. About a year ago Walck was up before the county court on the same charge, but his friends in this vicinity succeeded in fixing the matter up for him.

MORE PAVEMENT.

That's the Slogan of the People and Council of Ashland.

"As a result of bids for bitulithic paving in Ashland opened by the council at the last meeting, the Warren Construction company, who are engaged in a contract now in force, were awarded the contract for additional street work at the same figures heretofore paid," says the Ashland Record.

The contract covers the improvement of parts of Second street, Third street, B street, and Sherman street. The council also adopted a resolution providing for the improvement with bitulithic pavement, of A street, from Sixth street to Ash street.

Beautiful Gardens Set Apart For Exclusive Use of the Pope

Photo copyright by American Press Association, 1911

ADJOINING the Vatican grounds in Rome stands the palatial residence of the pope, with its quaint private garden, famed for its display of carpet bedding, foundations, innumerable statues and graceful flower vases, with their rare plants. This small plot of ground is exclusively set apart for the use of his holiness the pope. With the Vatican and St. Peter's, the pope may be said to reign over a territory of thirty acres, for, strictly speaking, this is not Italian soil and is entirely under the jurisdiction of the Vatican authorities. It is in these beautiful gardens that the pope takes daily walks when the state of his health permits. The prescriptions of the pope's physicians are put up by a corps of private chemists.

"Flirt Cops" Wanted.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 14.—Chief Doust of the Spokane police department, is ready and willing to pay a handsome salary to a young woman with a pretty face and engaging manners to act as official flirt. Escorts will be provided. He also had a job for a female impersonator, with a knockout punch in each hand. The purpose of attaching these new officials to the department is to discourage the practice of men accosting women and girls in the streets. Numerous complaints have reached the department during the last week that women without escorts have been singled out by curb mashers and invited to ride in automobiles. Several arrests were made and in each instance it was found that the prisoners were recent arrivals from eastern cities. Chief Doust has determined to suppress this element and to secure quick action he has decided to engage an official flirt to rout the oglers and smirkers. The police say that Spokane has been singularly free from the "genus masher" until this summer, when scores flocked in from eastern and coast cities.

What "Pa" Says

"Sure we use electric lights. When I go home of an evening, dead tired, I like to flop down in an easy chair, light up my old 'Jimmy pipe,' an' read. An' I want a LIGHT—a REAL light—not a smoky, flickery apology for one.

"An' I'm a fresh air bug too. Say! d'ever try to keep a coal oil lamp goin' with a breeze comin' through the window? Some job, ain't it? An' say! with kids like them of mine, I'd be scared to death that somethin' would happen if I left 'em alone for a minute with a oil lamp. No, they ain't no worse than other kids, I guess, but the way they roughhouse around would sure drive me wild if they was a lamp to explode or git overturned.

"Ma, she didn't like the idea of puttin' in lights at first. Said they would be too darn expensive. Ma's savin', but she found they don't cost much more than her old lamps, an' she don't have to fuss an' bother 'bout fillin' an' cleanin' 'em. Then I got her a electric iron, an' she figures she can do her week's ironin' in jest about half the time, an' actually SAVE money. No, you can't git ma to go back to the old oil lamps.
