NEWS FROM THE CANYON.

What People of Ladd Canyon Are Doing.

Ladd Canyon, Sept. 14.—(Special)—Mrs. Claude Braden came down from Perry yesterday and spent the day with her husband's mother, Mrs. Fred Braden and family. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Sam Braden who will remain with her until her husband returns from the Roundup at Pendleton.

A card received from Randall Pringleigh who went to Monmouth, Cal., two weeks ago to work in the Mammoth mines, states that he likes it splendidly.

Mrs. James McClure and daughter, Mrs. Amy Van Fleet are at The Dalles visiting.

Grover Ferris and wife have moved on the Brooks Campbell, San., farm over on the foothills and Mr. Herrmann, who lives there, has moved to La Grande.

Nearly every man in Ladd Canyon has gone to Pendleton to witness the big Roundup.

British Local Nicknames.

The residents of the English counties have nicknames the meaning and origin of which are not always obvious. Why the inhabitants of Liverpool should be called "Dicky Sams" is not very clear. But nearly all the counties have their distinctive nicknames. The Glaswegians are "Kee-ees," the Lancashire men are "Tim Robbins," Yorkshire men, again, are everywhere "Tykes," a nickname the etymology of which is not easy to trace. The inhabitants of Suffolk are designated "Dumplings," those of Kent "Hogs" and the Isle of Wight people "Calves."

A Friendly Call.

Little Tommy—Mamma, may I go over and play with Mrs. Nextdoor's children? Mother—You have never cared to play with them. Little Tommy—But my ball went over into their yard, and they threw it back to me, and it was all sticky. I guess they've got some candy.

The Lesser Bore.

"Why do you insist on asking that young man to sing?" "Because," replied Miss Cayenne, "when he's singing he isn't trying to converse."—Washington Star.

Business.

"Now, about the oratorio. Shall we put Handel's picture on the program or the picture of the leading soprano?" "I vote for the soprano. She has twenty or thirty relatives who'll buy tickets to the show."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Linen Breeches.

Linen breeches were worn by men in 1491 B. C. They also at that period wore embroidered coats, besides bonnets "for glory and for beauty."

If there is any person to whom you feel dislike that is the person of whom you ought never to speak.—Cecil.

A Trail of Twisted Trees.

All manner of devices have been employed to mark a line of march, but it is thought that the most curious method of "blazing the trail" is that still to be seen in Africa. In the year 1880, after a fierce battle with the Abyssinians, the dervishes pursued their foes as far as the lake district. The mahd's men had small knowledge of geography and little topographical intelligence. So the advance party, in order to mark the route for those who came after and also to guide the force on their return journey, twisted the saplings along the way into living knots. The war ended, but the tied up trees grew and flourished, although uncouthly twisted and distorted, and are now the only reminders of that uprising of the dervishes.

John Bunyan's Indictment.

The bill of indictment preferred against John Bunyan ran thus: "John Bunyan hath devilishly and perniciously abstained from coming to church to hear divine service and is a common upholder of several unlawful meetings and conventicles, to the disturbance and distraction of the good subjects of this kingdom, contrary to the laws of our sovereign lord the king." He was convicted and imprisoned twelve years and six months.
