

SITUATION SEEMS TENSE IN MADRID

CONTINUOUS RIOTING PREVAILS THROUGHOUT THE CITY.

REVOLUTION IS PROBABLE

All Constitutional Guarantee Is Suspended Today—Nation Wide Martial Law Has Been Declared—Railroad Tracks and Bridges Destroyed by Dynamite.

Madrid, Sept. 19.—Owing to continuous rioting in which railroad tracks have been destroyed and bridges dynamited, probably by anarchists who are using the strikes to shield their activity, all constitutional guarantees were suspended today and a nation wide martial law declared. The strike situation throughout this kingdom is assuming alarming proportions and some think it foreshadows a concerted effort toward a revolution by the labor unions.

Calencia, Spain, Sept. 19.—A municipal judge, and his clerk were killed and five were wounded besides the building being wrecked at Sueca, 20 miles from this city. This was due to a riot that broke out. Troops were called and dispersed the strikers. Retaliating laborites today voted a general strike, which will be declared soon. The revolutionists are advocating a general uprising.

WITNESS WOULD NOT TALK

IMMEDIATELY PUT UNDER BOND TO APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE.

Charged With Trying to Get Witness Out of the State.

Los Angeles, Sept. 19.—Cited for contempt of court on the strength of an affidavit filed by Charles Weir, the foreman of the grand jury, for refusing to answer questions bearing upon the Times case, John Harrington, an attorney associated with the McNamara defense, is under one thousand dollar bond today to appear before Judge Bordwell for a hearing. Weir's affidavit states that Harrington refused to answer questions bearing upon the charges made by the prosecution that the prosecution's witnesses had been intimidated and tampered with. Weir says Harrington refused to answer when he was asked if he had promised D. H. Ingersoll $5,000 if the latter would procure the absence of his wife, Lena Ingersoll, the San Francisco lodging house keeper, from California during the McNamara trial.

Defense Scores a Point.

Los Angeles, Sept. 19.—The defense of General Pryce, who is fighting extradition to Mexico on charges of murder, robbery and arson, scored heavily before United States Commissioner Van Dyke today when Silva Banco, the first witness, testified that Pryce's men were called "rebels" and that they carried a flag. This materially strengthened the claims of the defense that the men under Pryce were recognized as organized belligerents. Blanco admitted he commanded the Mexican volunteers at the battle of Tia Juana and said D'Ceuvras, the Tia Juana postmaster whom Pryce is alleged to have killed, was in Blanco's command. Admitting Ceuvras was armed shows that he was a combatant and that his death was the result of war, not murder.

Cummins on Trust Law.

Des Moines, Sept. 19.—Disagreeing with Taft's opinion that the anti-trust law does not need amendment United States Senator Cummins said he believes the law should be amended and supplemented. "I was surprised to know that the president emphatically opposes any amendment," said Cummins, and continued, "Of course interpretations of the Sherman law by the supreme court must be accepted as final and whether the construction is sound or unsound it will stand as the law laid down."

ALL NIGHT SESSION HELD

French Financiers Take the Matter in Hands and Demand a Settlement From the Kaiser Country—Diplomat Morgan Gets in the Game as Relief Agent.

Paris, Sept. 19.—Unless Germany settles her French differences before six o'clock next Tuesday she will be forced into a tight financial corner. This decision was reached after an all night session by a group of French financiers presided over by Baron Rothschild at Frankfurt, acting in behalf of the German bankers who are scared.

German four per cent. bonds to the extent of three hundred million marks are due Monday and most of them are held in France where they have been placed by German banks which admit they cannot make good.

The latest German note arrived today and it is said to be conciliatory.

If the notes are not taken up it would throw Germany into financial chaos. It is rumored that Pierpont Morgan has agreed to furnish the necessary money to avert a possible panic in German financial circles provided that the government accepts Rothschild's ultimatum in regard to Germany's acceptance of the French notes.

He It Was Who Set Aside the $29,000,000 Fine of the Standard Oil Co.—Takes Today and Does Not Bitter Attacks Upon Him While on the Bench.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Judge Peter Grosscup, of the United States circuit court of appeals, today announced his intention of resigning on Oct. 1st and resuming his law practice. He was formerly counsel for several large corporations and since he has been on the bench has been bitterly attacked by the labor press and has had much agitation against him.

He said his family insisted that he resign so that he could have more freedom as an individual citizen. He is the judge who set aside the $29,000,000 fine imposed upon the Standard Oil company by Landis.

Judge Grosscup said: "The world politically is trying to catch up with the world morally and everything is undergoing a change of economic conditions. Next year the presidential election will, I believe, be lost on oil lines and settlement for the future will not come through the courts but through the court of public opinion. I never expect to hold office again."

OVER THE VALLEY TODAY SPREADING THE TRUTH

The fair committee started this morning on a tour of the valley to spread the truth among the ranchers and fruit growers relative to the great annual Union county fair, and to encourage further exhibits to be brought in. With a number of autos loaded with business men La Grande is represented among her supporters in a way that no one can doubt is genuine.

It has been learned that wrong impressions have become fixed in the minds of some regarding the fair and its mission. These have grown even to the extent that it appears some planned work to create such impressions. The committee en route today will take all such matters up personally with the people and a thorough and satisfactory explanation will follow. Because there is nothing in the whole fair management but what welcomes the light of day and there is nothing but a firm desire to have proper exhibits and fair and impartial contests in everything.

The men are James Storer, president; E. J. Hurd, E. P. Howe, William C. W. Brown. The penalty is a heavy fine or imprisonment or both. The company manufactures as a specialty all machines used in the production of shoes which it leases but will not sell. This gives them virtual control of the shoe business.
