

Thelsis THEATRE

"Flowers and Plants in Winter" Gaumont
A beautiful colored film showing wild plants and flowers in their natural tints.

"A Passing Fancy" Kosmik
Telling of an unfought duel and a physician's struggle between professional duty and his hatred for an enemy.

"A Cattleherd's Romance" Kalem
It's a great western story. Something out of the ordinary. You're bound to like it.

"The Return of the 'Widow Pogson's Husband'" Vitagraph
This is the best Vitaraph comedy released for a long time. Never flagging in interest and racy comedy. Oh, it is to laugh.

Illustrated Song—"Toot Your Horn, Kid; you're in a Fog"
Sung by
Miss Garrick Matinees
Mr. Ferrin Evenings
Everybody in La Grande will be humming this song tomorrow

PERSONALS

Press Lewis of the Grande Ronde Cash company is transacting business in Union today.

A. R. Carberry of Portland is here, the guest of Fireman Ed Ebell for a few days this week.

Engineer and Mrs. Pete Belver have returned from a visit with friends in Portland and Vancouver.

F. D. Halsten was operated upon by Dr. Posey, the special on Tuesday, for ulcerative catarrh of the throat, causing deafness. He is doing nicely. Superintendent of Federal Building Construction Fall, now permanently located in the northwest, spent yesterday in La Grande looking over the commencement of work for the federal building here. A permanent superintendent for the local building will arrive soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry U. Meyers, for many years residents of this city while Mr. Meyers was engaged in the barber business, expect to leave in a few days for Portland where they will make their future home. Miss Anna Alexander has purchased the Meyers property in this city as an investment.

C. E. Cohen of Portland, manager of the United Auto company, which makes the Maxwell car, is in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rumbles, formerly of Joseph, are in town enroute to their present home, Capitola, Cal., after a month's visit at Joseph.

Mrs. George Palmer arrived home today from a short visit to Portland.

Charles Reuben, a traveling salesman of Seattle, is here today showing his line of postcards.

Bruce Dennis left last night for Portland to attend the press association meeting there this week.

Joe Whitby and Marbel Green left today for Salem where they will enter Willamette university for a four-year course.

S. D. Crowe and A. W. Nelson returned last night from an automobile tour and hunting trip in Wallowa county which took them to the headwaters of the Chesniminus and Devil's gulch.

R. H. Newson of Baker, C. B. Titus of Seattle, Ben Polaky and wife of Omaha, M. W. Haworth of Nashville, Tenn., and Thomas Sewell of North Yakima are some of the Sommer guests today.

A. M. Pattison, of Gearing, Nebraska, is here visiting his brother, F. W. Pattison, the contractor. The two brothers went out to Imbler today to inspect fruit land and it is possible that the Nebraskan will locate here with his brother in the near future. He is well pleased with the city and valley.

District Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe arrived home yesterday evening from the extreme eastern part of Wallowa county where he went with the Church-Dunn-Wood hunting party. Up to date the hunters have not cornered any big game, but the balance of the company have moved farther north and hope to have better luck this week.

Frank Chutas Well Again.
Frank Chutas has recovered sufficiently from his attack of typhoid to go to work again in his restaurant. One spinal adjustment by Dr. Darland, the chiropractor, broke the fever.

PASSES FOR CARETAKERS

STOCKMEN NOT TO BE CHARGED ENTRANCES FOR KEEPERS

Many Special Attractions—Booths Being Reserved—Many Stalls Taken.

During the county fair in this city which starts September 27 and continues until October 4, stock caretakers will not be charged the regular entrance fees. This order has been issued by the management of the fair and is a new one in that a year ago caretakers were required to pay entrance fees. Stock exhibitors should request this accommodation from F. J. Holmes, treasurer of the association and he will issue the passes to the various men who have charge of the stock exhibits at the fair.

Booths Are Now Ready.
Carpenters have completed the booths at the grounds and exhibitors can now commence to decorate their display rooms as the places are dry and ready for the artists. These privileges are being taken up rapidly and all those who desire space at the fair, booths should make their reservations at once before everything is taken.

Stock Stalls Reserved Too.
N. K. West led off yesterday evening with a reservation of seven stock stalls and today marked the reservation of several more. While there will likely be enough to accommodate all late-comers, the management requests early reservation nevertheless. Stock stalls are to be decorated tastily this year by a large number of the exhibitors and it will add to the general tone of finish and tastiness.

Special Attractions Many.
A list of special attractions has been prepared for the fair week that will amuse and entertain.

These special attractions come with high recommendations and the visitors at the fair will get a fine line of special entertainment during fair week.
