WHITE SLAVER IS INDICTED

SPEEDY TRIAL OF LOUIS IS PROMISED.

Chief of Police Returns From Testifying Before Grand Jury.

Speedy trial of Chris Louis, the Greek arrested in La Grande on a white slavery charge preferred through the confession of Mrs. Dillman, a Pendleton girl-wife, is assured by federal district attorney at Portland according to Chief of Police Walden who has returned from the metropolis where he appeared as a witness before the federal grand jury. While it has not been announced, there is no question but what Louis was indicted and it is likely that his trial will come to a head early in the next month some time. The woman who confessed to the man's practice in La Grande is still held in Portland and will also appear when the trial is held.

LA GRANDERS VISIT 'LAKE'

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE SPEND SUNDAY THERE.

Gospel Services Close Day of Pleasure and Rest for Visitors.

Hot Lake, Sept. 25.—(Special)—La Grande people were very much in evidence at Hot Lake yesterday. The bright day, the splendid drive and the well known hospitality of the place were sufficient to attract those desiring a day's outing and a dainty meal. Among those taking advantage of the opportunity offered were: Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Richey, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sister, Mrs. Laura Wills, Miss Mott, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Landrum, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle and Mr. Ellis Kirtley and party.

In the evening the guests had an opportunity to listen to a very eloquent as well as instructive sermon by Rev. Howarth of Payette, who for an hour held the attention of his hearers so closely that it seemed that but a moment had elapsed from the time he took his text till he pronounced the benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. Landrum will remain several days, the guests of Hassie Landrum, the Sanatorium electrician. Mr. Landrum assisted with the sacred concert Sunday evening much to the gratification of the congregation.
