COUNT APPONYI OF HUNGARY, ADVOCATE OF PEACE.

SIXTY years ago Louis Kossuth, Hungarian patriot and exile, came to the United States and spoke in behalf of his people, lately overwhelmed by Austrian despotism. "The justness of my cause is my eloquence," said the splendid orator and soldier. Kossuth addressed the house of representatives at Washington by invitation. Now another great Hungarian, Count Albert Apponyi, is in this country. His mission here is to speak in behalf of universal peace, disarmament, an end to war. The other day Count Apponyi, by invitation, addressed the house of representatives. For forty years he has been a member of the Hungarian house of representatives and has served as speaker.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS OPENS.

Cincinnati Gathering Place of Many Prominent Catholics.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 28.—The opening today of the Fifth National Eucharistic congress of the Roman Catholic church in the United States was preceded by the celebration of high pontifical mass in the cathedral. The event was a most memorable one, as with few exceptions all the dignitaries and diocesan heads of the church in this country participated. The numerous archbishops and bishops wore their purple robes and baretas, which with the white linen robes of the priests, made a most imposing spectacle.

The Most Rev. Diomedo Falconetti, the apostolic delegate at Washington officiated at the mass, assisted by Archbishop Farley of New York, Archbishop Moeller of Cincinnati and other high prelates. The sermon was preached by Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul and was an exposition of the divine institution of the holy eucharist.

The business sessions of the congress began this afternoon, with Bishop Maes of Covington in the chair. The sessions will continue for three days and will be followed on Sunday by a solemn procession of the sacrament. The sessions will be devoted to the consideration of "The Real Presence" and related doctrines. Archbishop Bleck of New Orleans will preach the closing sermon.

The congress is held under the auspices of the Priests' Eucharistic league, which has for its object the promotion of devotion to the holy eucharist. The league has about 6,000 priests enrolled in the United States. Bishop Maes of Covington is the director general.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them.

H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.
