LUMBERMEN COMING HERE

PINE MANUFACTURER'S ASSOCIATION MEETING NOV. 6

Placed at La Grande to Give Eastern Oregon Men Conference.

La Grande will entertain the third quarterly meeting of the Western Pine Manufacturer's association commencing November 6. This order has been issued by Walter W. Cooper, secretary of the association who has his headquarters in Spokane. This change is made—the association usually meets in Spokane—for the benefit of the Eastern Oregon lumbermen, it being intended that the change in meeting place will allow more of the Eastern Oregon makers of lumber to be present. Local members of the association today stated that a large delegation was expected and that arrangements for a profitable program has been arranged.

COPHERS HERE IN TINY CAR

COME OVER 3,000 MILES TO SEE COUNTRY.

Some of Roads Have Been Exceptionally Bad, Say Tourists Here.

Going over 3,000 miles before reaching La Grande and some of it over the worst roads that lie out of doors. L. L. Bule and J. R. Connolly, traveling in a tiny Liberte-Brush automobile, reached La Grande this afternoon; they rested on their tour from Minneapolis to the coast by visiting a few hours with Attorney Greene of the firm of Greene & Small, who was a class mate with the young men in the University of Minnesota. The tourists report having had but one puncture and positively no other trouble with their machine en route.

The Brush is a little thing—smaller than any car seen in La Grande, yet it skimmed over state after state, the men coming by the northern route. They hope to go to northern California and return to Minnesota before the snow flies in any appreciable quantity.

The tourists are greatly impressed with the west but what impresses the west more is the big undertaking attempted in the little car. Wherever they have gone the little Liberte-Brush has been the object of wonder. It is heavily loaded with provisions and equipment but has taken the trip well.

Drop in to Visit Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gillilan of The Dalles made the folks a surprise last night by running in on them. Mrs. Gillilan was formerly Miss Edith Willis and was reared in La Grande. Mr. Gillilan is a messenger on the O. W. & N. railroad and has the run between The Dalles and Madras. He has a ten days' layoff. To be sure, they are to be seen at the parsonage.

Fig—As a talker Brown's wife is certainly a wonder. Fog—Right you are! Wonders never cease.—Boston Transcript.

The Polar Bear.

The polar bear is a pretty formidable brute. A specimen of this species has been killed weighing 1,000 pounds and measuring nearly thirteen feet from nose to tail. The strength of the polar bear is beyond belief. One was seen feeding on the body of a white whale fifteen feet long and weighing at least three tons. The whale had been dragged by the bear out of the water on to the ice.

In These Degenerate Days. "Huh," exclaimed the yardstick as it moved rapidly over the bolt of cloth, "you're not all wool." "That's all right," retorted the bolt of cloth; "you're not a yard long, either."—Chicago Tribune.

A Jolt to Romanos. "Hubby, you have a lock of my hair, haven't you?" "Of course." "See if you can match it in some puffs when you go downtown."—Pittsburg Post.
