Without an exception these are the most fashionable, highest grade coats we have ever had the pleasure of showing at such prices.

Society and Clubs

The Musical given by Miss Will French and Mrs. Frank R. Bridges at the home of the former on Tuesday is claimed by all who enjoyed the treat, to have been one of the prettiest and most artistic affairs ever attended by the ladies of La Grande. The program consisting of about ten numbers was especially fine. Every number was beautifully rendered and classed the participants as artists. The rooms were artistically decorated with Oregon grape and the color scheme was pink and white, carried out in a most beautiful effect with pink and white lighted the rooms where the dainty luncheon was served amid a profusion of pink and white roses, sweet peas. Gowned in a creation of pink and Mrs. N. McLiter in cream and pink, served the lunch. They were assisted by Miss Edda Angst, Mrs. John Theisen, Miss C. E. Lilly and Miss Helen Currey. The flower favors were pink and white sweet peas. About 100 ladies were present.

The program, staccatoed with numerous encores, included these numbers:
The program rendered follows:
Abschied des vogel.... Eugen Hildach
Mrs. T. J. Scroggin
Mrs. Geo. Birnie.

the master, declare it to be the very finest in this part of the state. Prof. Maguire is almost a stranger to La Grande, but comes so highly recommended from eastern conservatories, where he has taught so many years with distinction, that everybody is "up in arms" so to speak, in their anxiety to hear him on the big pipe organ. Everyone knows what Mrs. Van Buren is in her "Angels of Peace," and the sounds of those rich mellow tones are eagerly awaited. Those who have been fortunate enough to hear them, say that Verdi's "Praise Ye" seems to have been written especially for Mr. Geddes, Mr. Ferrin and Mr. Davis. Taken all in all, the program is artistic in the extreme and indications point to a capacity house. The "Young People's Meeting" is the unadopted name by which weekly gatherings of the young are known up at the Methodist Church. They have a rather informal organization and meet every Wednesday evening for a social time; they vary their program and have songs, readings, conversations, etc. Miss Rosa is the president, and Miss C. JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

A more propitious opening for the coming musical season could scarcely be imagined than the big sacred concert to be given under the direction of the fair board in the tabernacle tomorrow night. La Grande's best talent, which seems to have slumbered so long, will again be in the limelight, in addition to which more and probably greater ability has been added. The L. D. S. chorus, than whom there is no larger or better in the state, will be heard in some well selected anthems with pipe organ accompaniments. "The Flag Without a Stain" by Mr. Ferrin and the choir should make a decided hit. Mrs. Carlock, so well known to our musical circles, will be heard in an entirely new role, at least to her friends, for she is booked for two numbers on the large pipe organ. Mrs. A. L. Richardson will give a number from Haydn's "Creation," and those who love her in this line of work, since her tutoring under
