FAST MILL ON MONDAY NIGHT

BOXERS IN READINESS FOR GRIELLING GO.

L. H. Peare to Officiate as Third Man in Sparring Contest.

Next Monday night should be a treat to fans following the boxing game. Bob Logan and Kid Exposito clash at 155 pounds in a 10-round no decision match and the many friends of young Logan hope to see him vanquish the Kid, but the opponent of Bob is a stout little fellow who is nifty with his dukes and is stout too. Both men have trained constantly for the past 10 days here combining their work with gymnasium stunts.

J. H. Peare will be the third man in the ring when the gong sounds and his old-time experience in the squared circle should go far towards making the match fast and furious.

Billy Nixon says that he was handed a lot of rough stuff by Battling Nelson in their recent bout in Boston.

Danny Morgan, manager of K. O. Brown, has offered champion Ad Wolcott a guarantee of $12,000 to meet Brown in New York.

Jonny Conlon, the basium champion who has been out of the ring since the death of his father, will soon return to the game.

BURKE HAS MADE GOOD.

Brooklyn Middleweight Entitled to Be Classed With Crackerjacks.

Why all the bother about Sallor Burke, lads? He cleaned Mr. William Papke just as well as any fighter was ever cleaned, and yet some writers refer to the tar as a third rater.

Hain't the Brooklyn deck scrubber proved his worth? He defeated Montana Dan Sullivan handily. He also handed out a nice lacing to Tom McMahon, the Pittsburg tiger. Then how about Ted Nelson, the Australian bear? Didn't the sailor flop him on two different occasions? Wasn't Mr. Burke pegged for a fine lacing by nearly every sport in New York, and didn't he make Papke look like a boob?

Of course Burke is not a Dempsey nor a Tommy Ryan, but you always see a battle when he starts, and there is always some one bunged up before his fight are finished. He backed Papke all around the ring in the recent fight. He forced the fighting and never refused to mix. If Papke had been willing to mix he would have had company, for the sailor was there with the heart of a lion and ready to stand toe to toe for the limit.

The offense alleged was the killing of a doe and fawn a short distance above the head of the lake. The men arrested were Orval Reeves, Percy Fulson and Will Beland. They were apprehended on information furnished by Mr. Leffel of the Joseph Rod and Gun club.

NEW GARAGE IS COMMENCED

GROUND BROKEN ON FIFTH FOR NEW BUILDING.

Construction to Be Carried Along at Easy Stages Until Finished.

Ground has been broken for the new L. C. Smith garage on Fifth street between Washington and Spring. The office portion of the building will be hurried to completion but the garage proper will be built by easy stages so as to insure its completion before spring at the latest. The preliminary work is being done under the direction of the owner, L. C. Smith, but in a few days the construction contract will be let to some contracting firm under contract to put up a modern brick garage building.

The Joseph high school football team which was recently organized has been doing some heavy practice work this week under their efficient coach A. W. Shaupp. The first game of the season will be played next Saturday with the Wallowa high school team at that place at 10:45, ending at 12:45, thus allowing Joseph fans to go and return the same day. The local team are figuring on bringing home the scalps of the down-river aggregation.

The home team lines up as follows:

FAST HORSES IN WALLOWA

OVER HUNDRED THOUSAND IN HORSE FLESH ALONE.

Races Important Feature of Wallowa County Fair this Year.

Many Grande Riders will doubtless take advantage of the opportunity to pay a neighborly visit to the neighboring county of Wallowa next week, the occasion being the sixth annual Wallowa County Fair, which promises this year to be the most successful of the many successful fairs held in that county. Last year's fair was considered good, but this year's will be far better.

Last year it was estimated that there were more than $100,000 worth of horse flesh, alone, on exhibition. This year there will be as many Wallowa county horses and many from neighboring counties, live stock being eligible to competition from Umatilla, Union, Baker and Wallowa counties. The fairs in that county have greatly stimulated the breeding of a better quality of stock. During the past year many highly bred dairy cattle have been imported and these will all be on exhibition. The hog show will alone be worth seeing. It is expected that at least one hundred pens of hogs will be shown.

All the amusement features will fill and a program filling every moment of time will be provided.

Races are to be an important feature this year. Chief among these will be the relay meets for which preparations have been going on for a long time.

Everett Barton, fullback; Clarence Atkins, and George Wells, halfbacks; Kay V. at, quarterback; Shelby Jennings, center; Vern Bodmer and Orville Brook, guards; Fred Boudan and Ben Christy, ends; Everett Hays and Harry Legore, tackles.

Substitute players are Shirley Hays, Kest-r Gaylord, Olive Clark, Opie Burrows and Ted Martin. Fred Boudan was elected captain of the team.

The lineup of the Wallowa follows: Center, Rich; guards, Clarence Southwick, McClaran; tackles, Lorenz, Frank Southwick; ends, Fred Southwick, Johnson; quarter, Tulley; halfbacks, Hayes, Evans; fullback, Ralph Southwick; substitutes, McGinnis, Hendricks, Hamilton; Atherton, Womack.

TROTTER UHLAN IS PARTICULAR PIECE OF HORSEFLESH.

Uhlán, the world's champion trotter, is a mighty particular piece of horseflesh when it comes to drinking water. Not so very long ago Tom Logan, who is proud of being Uhlán's valet, hit upon the plan of furnishing Uhlán with spring water to drink. Tom figured he would give the gelding a treat for a few days, but he had no intention of continuing the practice. When Logan tried to change from spring water to the old variety for Uhlán there was nothing doing. The star performer positively refused to drink. That's why Logan makes a five mile trip on a motorcycle every morning to provide Uhlán with spring water to drink.

WILDING NOT TO PLAY.

Australia's Tennis Star Will Not Assist in Defending Davis Cup.

A. F. Wilding, who was a member of the Australasian defending team two years ago and who last July retained the British tennis championship title by defeating H. Roper Barrett at Wimbledon, announced recently that he would be unable to return to New Zealand to assist in defending the Davis cup this year.

A. F. WILDING, AUSTRALIA'S CHAMP TENNIS PLAYER.

Wilding is one of the greatest tennis players Australia ever produced. His absence will surely weaken the team.
