Save Eye Troubles and Doctor Bills

Give your child good lights to study by. Oculists tell us that a large percentage of eye trouble among school children is caused by straining the eyes in a poor light. Condition should be perfect when night study is required. There is just one perfect light; that is the electric light. You can avoid much of the eye strain and the attendant evils by putting in electric lights now. They are better, cleaner and more convenient and the cost is most reasonable. Ask us for rates, or phone Main 34.

E. C. BENEDICT, YACHTSMAN, BECOMES EXPLORER.

If you possessed a splendid country estate on the Long Island sound shore near Greenwich, Conn., with a commodious villa and sixty acres of landscaped ground, including "Friendship Grove," with trees set out by such friends as Grover Cleveland, Joseph Jefferson, John G. Carlisle, Andrew Carnegie, Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Charles W. Fairbanks, would you forsake it all for a long period and go on a voyage of exploration to the upper reaches of the Amazon river, where only wilderness abounds? That is just what E. C. Benedict, the noted yachtsman, has done. With a party of friends he is bound for the Amazon in his steam yacht Virginia. He hopes to add something to geographical and scientific lore. Commodore Benedict was a special friend of President Cleveland, much of whose important state work was planned aboard the Benedict yacht. It is said that he has entertained at his Connecticut home more prominent persons than any other man in America.

LAST DAY OF GRACE FOR TAX

WATER MONDAY DELINQUENTS MUST PAY FINE.

Impossible to Ascertain Delinquent Sum for Several Days.

With a rush of belated tax payers the sheriff's office today is on the last lap of receiving taxes without penalty. Those who paid half of their taxes in the spring can clean up the assessment today without penalty, but after today the state exacts a fine for delinquents.

The tax list is fairly well cleaned up but not without a big rush today, the last day of grace. It will be impossible to ascertain the exact delinquent list until after checks mailed today have been received at the office of the sheriff.
