PERSONAL LIBERTY THEME OF CONGRESS

Washington, Oct. 4.—"Personal liberty" will be a leading subject of discussion at the sixth annual convention of the National German-American alliance, which is to meet in this city the latter part of this week. The convention is expected to adopt strong resolutions in opposition to restrictive legislation in matters affecting immigration and Sunday observance. In its campaign for "personal liberty," it is declared, the alliance has been given assurance of the close and staunch support of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and other Irish-American organizations throughout the country.

The convention will be attended by about 1,000 delegates, representing German organizations throughout the United States. The opening session will be held Friday morning at the New Willard hotel and will be devoted largely to the exchange of greetings. In the afternoon the delegates will make a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon, where exercises will be held at the tomb of Washington. The program for Saturday provides for a business session in the morning, a visit to the white house in the afternoon and a banquet at the New Willard in the evening. The banquet has been arranged on a pretentious scale, and many notable men in official and private life will be numbered among the guests of honor. Sunday will be devoted to sight seeing and on Monday the final sessions of the convention will be held.

The German-American alliance was founded 11 years ago in Philadelphia. An idea of the influence it wields may be gained from the fact that it numbers nearly 2,000 societies in the state of Pennsylvania alone. It is also heavily represented among the German population of the western states. At the time of the Boer war a petition presented by the alliance to congress, praying that the government use its good offices to bring about an honorable peace, bore the signatures of 3,000,000 voters.

The object of the alliance is to exert a wholesome, salutary influence over public affairs in this country and, incidentally, to promote friendly relations with Germany. It is a civil rather than a political body in its aims. One of its most worthy aims is to perpetuate the memory of the early German pioneers, who made so many sacrifices for America in the dark days of the French and Indian wars; the struggle of the revolution, in which men of German blood, such as General Stark and Nicholas Herkimer, gained splendid victories for the cause of the united colonies, and of the early days of the last century, when the development of the great west was undertaken.

Dr. T. I. Hexamer of Philadelphia has been the president of the alliance since its first organization. The other officers are: First vice president, Joseph Keller, of Indianapolis; second vice president, John Tjarks, of Baltimore; third vice president, Col. E. G. Stahl, of Trenton, N. J.; fourth vice president, John D. Cappelman of Charleston, S. C.; treasurer, H. Meniger, of Philadelphia; financial secretary, Hermann Weder, of Philadelphia; recording secretary, Adolph Timm, of Philadelphia.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away

La Grande women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail makes life a burden. Back aches, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of weak kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of dropsy or Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. They attack kidney diseases by striking at the cause.

Can La Grande sufferers desire stronger proof than this woman's word?

Mrs. J. B. Sams, of Union, Oregon, says: "I was bothered for about 25 years by kidney complaint and doctors were unable to help me. My back was weak and ached constantly. It was difficult for me to get up after sitting, owing to sharp twinges in my back and I often had to grasp something for support. The kidneys' secretions were unnatural, showing that I had kidney complaint. Before I had used Doan's Kidney Pills long, I was relieved and I enjoyed much better health. Another member of my family took this remedy and joins me in recommending them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
