HAROLD GRADY MAKES GOOD FIRST YEAR.

La Grande Boys at University Figure in Club and Fraternity Life.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 4.—(Special)—Director Melvin Ogden announces the following provisional list of men for the Glee Club this year:

First tenors—Burns Powell of Portland, Vernon Motschbacher of Newburg, Leslie Doble of Portland, Harold Grady of La Grande, and Brooks Dickson of Pendleton.

Second tenors—Leonard Bratager of Sioux Falls, S. D., Harold Quigley of Portland, Irwin Rolfe of Eugene, Walter Fisher of Roseburg, and Bert Girard of Pendleton.

First basses—Raphael Gelsler of Portland, Earl Fortmiller of Albany, Homer Morris of Portland, Kenneth Frazier of Fortland, Ira Manville of Eugene, and Mr. Giles of Portland.

Second basses—Jerry Martin of Klamath Falls, Earl Stannard of Portland, Lloyd Barzee of Portland, Vernon Vawter of Medford, Harry Ding of Portland, and Alfred Skel of Mt. Angel.

Material was abundant. Besides the 17 old men who reported for duty, about 27 new men made their appearance. The greatest scarcity was found among the first tenors. Three old men were back and but two new men showed themselves capable of singing in this section. These were Grady and Dickson. However, both men sing a good A in lyric quality of voice. Burns Powell, who sang first tenor his freshman year has been transferred from the second tenor section to the first again and will assume the duties of the late Thomas Burke, leader for the past two years. Jerry Martin, who formerly sang first bass has been moved to the low bass section.

The club will rehearse four times a week. The old members of the club will meet in Villard Hall, Tuesday at 4 p. m. to run over the old Oregon songs preparatory to singing Wednesday morning at the student assembly.
