TREAT THEM LIKE PEDLERS.

Again the stock salesmen are infesting La Grande. For a time after Jovita Heights blew up and after wireless telegraph got into the courts and was found to be worthless La Grande was free from the outside salesmen. But the picking is evidently too good and back they are coming with different propositions. The Observer has just one bit of

Arcade Theatre

"The Gypsy"—Lubin. A very interesting picture with Miss Lawrence and Arthur Johnson in the leading parts.

"Scenes at the Flower Carnival"—Paris Pathe. It was worth while picturing the flower carnival. It is famous and the picture of it is interesting.

"Wages of War"—Vitagraph. A war drama of the north and "Billies Marriage"—American Path. A good live comedy with many laughs.

A new singer, Mr. Grice, will sing: "Any Old Time and Any Old Place as Long as You Are There."

advice to give to every reader on all foreign offerings: Leave them alone.

No matter how good a thing may look; no matter how much money its promoters assure you will be returned, turn a deaf ear, say no, and mean it. Treat the stock salesmen the same as farmers in Missouri treat peddlers—set the dogs on them.

There is no use fooling with them or letting them tell their story, just say "skiddoo" and see that the sleek tongued chap takes your advice.

The Grande Ronde valley has been bunched and fleeced beyond endurance. If half of the money yent away on worthless propositions were invested here the transformation would be remarkable.

Are you one who is paying for some imaginary highly profitable proposition on the installment? Are you? If so, cut it out. Pocket your loss and swear with your eyes turned toward Mount Emily that you never will again. Swear at the same time that the stock salesman will get a chilly reception when he calls upon you. Cut out all this fancy stuff and try and get your neighbor to do likewise.

A BIG MORTGAGE.

A four million dollar mortgage is not often recorded in a county like Union, but that is what occurred yesterday when J. A. Almiral's company—the Powder Valley Land and Irrigation company—placed on record with Recorder Snook a mortgage for that amount. This mortgage is given to raise money whereby the Thief valley irrigation project may be completed. Quite an area of this project is in Union county making it necessary for a filing to be made here.

The importance of this great undertaking of reclaiming thousands of acres of land in the desert is far reaching. It not only means that verdant fields will take the place of sagebrush but its effect will be felt all over this section. Where it is possible to store water in other localities besides Thief valley efforts will be made to do so and in the course of time more and more land will come under the ditch.

GREAT IS YOUTH.

Last night the school "kids" held a meeting and organized for the purpose of helping to make merry during the school year and it was a splendid occasion. Splendid, we say, because the chatter and cheers of boys and girls sounded throughout the city. The young generation was alive and active, which means that La Grande has boys and girls with real red blood in their veins. They held high carnival and made lots of noise, but to the man or woman who is not steeped in pessimism that noise was the sweetest of music. Translate the clatter of feet and shrill sharp notes of laughter and you have the smooth harmony only known in the voice not lowered by age, in the step not halted by hardship and constant worry.

Yes, take off your hats to the school "kids"; they are "it" in La Grande, to use their slang expression, and we are glad they are the whole thing. There is nothing so refreshing, nothing so truly grand as to get out with them and be a "kid" once more.
