

ENTERTAIN LAKE GUESTS

READER BLACKWELL TO OPEN WINTER SERIES.

Hot Lake to Run Excursions for Series of Good Attractions.

Hot Lake, Oct. 9.—(Special)—Introducing a series of winter attractions numbering a half dozen or more, the management of the Hot Lake sanatorium enters upon a course of entertainment for its guests tomorrow night when Paul Blackwell the clever reciter and reader, will be heard in the first number of these winter entertainments. Mr. Blackwell, who reads "The Fortune Hunter," "The Taming of the Shrew," "The Spoilers," and other high class attractions, will give "The Fortune Hunter" or "The Taming of the Shrew" tomorrow night, just as the audience wishes.

During the winter excursions will be run from La Grande to these attractions which will be of a high order of perfection. The "Lake" has made arrangements to use the gasoline motor car for this purpose, although it will not be put on tomorrow evening. At the next number the management hopes to be in shape to offer low excursion rates for La Grande people who may wish to come to Hot Lake to hear these numbers during the winter. Mr. Blackwell is appearing on the best lecture bureau attractions throughout the northwest this year.

WOMEN'S WOES.

La Grande Women Are Finding Relief
at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Sick kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and much suffering is saved. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people in this locality.

Mrs. W. M. Stokes, of Union, Oregon, says: "I hold out as high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did when I publicly recommended them in 1907. Off and on I was annoyed by a lame and aching back and it was not until I used Doan's Kidney Pills that I found relief. During the past year, I have had no further need of a kidney medicine, but I have kept a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TRI-STARS IN CITY TUESDAY

"JIM, THE PENMAN," GREATEST DETECTIVE STORY YET.

Concerns Partly True Facts of Cheek Forging Propensities.

"Jim, the Penman," which remains to the present day as the greatest detective play ever written, even though almost a quarter of a century has elapsed since it was first produced, will be one of the biggest offerings of the present season, coming as it does with the new famous tri-star combination of Florence Roberts, Thurlow Bergen and Theodore Roberts, playing their original New York parts. The story which is founded partly on fact, as the gifted author declared at the time of its premier, the story of "Jim, the Penman," concerns the forging propensities of James Ralston and his running down by a society top of Scotland yard, known as Captain Redwood. To his skill in his nefarious operations, Ralston owes his fortune, his position in society, even his wife, because it was through the medium of two letters, one to the other, bearing forged signatures, that he separated her from the man she loved. It is only after many years of trials and worries that the wife learns of her husband's duplicity and identifies him with the scoundrel, "Jim, the Penman," whom the whole English world is seeking.

A fatal attack of heart disease coming at the time of his wedding to an English nobleman, whose valuable family diamonds were stolen in the forgery coup, but restored by the somnolent detective, puts an end to the Ralstons' Admirable, even to the smallest feature, is the presenting cast, which reflects great credit upon Mr. Ernest Shipman; who is responsible for this revival, and what memories of a former era in theatricals this self-same cast will bring forth; as the polished forger, Thurlow Bergen, will make an ideal "Jim, the Penman"; Theodore Roberts, as Baron Hatfeld, contributes a great character study to the villanous associate of Ralston in the forgery schemes. Florence Roberts, portrays the role of Mrs. Ralston as if it were built for her, and rises to great dramatic heights in the third and the fourth acts with the skill of a consum-mate artist.

The scenic production has been built with that care and detail that will assure an accurate and life-like setting to the London scenes, from which Sir Charles Young secured the text for their now world famous crime drama which will be seen at the Steward tomorrow night.
