

Management

While large capital and surplus, together with ample resources and modern facilities, are important factors in the stability of every financial institution, its strength depends principally upon the men who direct its affairs. The management of this bank is composed of men having long experience in banking and commercial affairs, and they are well known for their sound judgement and for their influence in the community.

"FORTUNE HUNTER," A LIVE STORY.

History, the hall of fame, and the trusts are full of the names of those who have come to the city as penniless country boys and remained to accumulate a great reputation and a large fortune. But the penniless city man who goes to the country for the same reason that attracts the country boy to the city is an odd bird indeed. Nathaniel Dunch, the fortune hunter in "The Fortune Hunter," to be heard at Hot Lake tonight, is this kind of a man. He has a plan, if followed out, is guaranteed to make any presentable city man independently wealthy. "The Fortune Hunter" is one of the brightest, cleverest, freshest, most thorough American comedies that has appeared in a long time and was one of the big dramatic sensations of the season. Paul Blackwell, the well known reciter, is going to recite this drama for the amusement of the guests.

DANCE IS POSTPONED.

The Elks dance to be given at the Elks auditorium tonight has been postponed. Further announcement will be made later.
