ELKS' PARTY POSTPONED

BAD WEATHER RESPONSIBLE FOR ACTION.

Outlying Districts Cut Off From Dance by Bad Roads.

Because of the bad weather and the presence in La Grande of Florence Roberts, Thurlow Bergen and Theodore Roberts, the management of the Elks opening dancing party has announced a postponement of the event until a future date. The disagreeable weather is forbidding many Elks from Elgin and Cove and outlying districts in general from attending as going is bad for rig and auto alike. The announcement of the postponement comes late and all Elks have been notified as far as possible, not to make any effort to attend this evening. The exact date of the opening party will be announced at a future date.

SPAIN, ET AL. ACQUITTED

JURY OUT ABOUT FOUR HOURS IN WEIGHING EVIDENCE.

First Ballot Said to Have Stood Ten to Two for Acquittal.

Five hours' deliberation by the jurors after they had been given the evidence connected with the accusation of horse stealing preferred against John Spain, king of buckaroos of the northwest, his friends, Henry McGrath and Zibe Morse, was sufficient for them to attain an agreement on a verdict of not guilty. It is said about the court house that the first ballot stood 10 to 2 for acquittal and it took but little persuasion to change the others. The jurors went to supper at 6 o'clock so there was hardly more than four hours of actual deliberation in reaching a verdict. The three defendants expressed themselves as greatly appreciating the outcome of the trial and are confident that they have been exonerated in the minds of all their friends of the charges preferred against them.

An Unforeseen Calamity.

In his own mind Abel Saunders was a man marked out by destiny for misfortune; in the minds of his neighbors it was a wonder that such a shiftless man got on as well as Abel did.

When he appeared at the door of the resident who had ordered a dozen eggs the night before he unfolded a much crumpled paper and took from it four eggs.

"That's all there is left of what I started with," he said lugubriously "if it had been anybody but me they'd've got here all right. But the four little holes that was in the bottom of the bag—I saw 'em, but there wa'n't any one of 'em half big enough for an egg to come through—if they didn't all join together when I was most over here! If I hadn't've been as spry as a man like me has to learn to be I couldn't have saved ye a single egg!"—Youth's Companion.

Gave the Tiger His Arm.

The late Sir Edward Bradford was a great figure in British official life, especially in the Indian service. Sir Edward was a splendid huntsman. Although possessing only one arm, he rode a most spirited horse. The occasion on which he lost his left arm furnishes an example of his presence of mind and the cool bravery which were his characteristic traits. He was out tiger shooting in the jungle when he was knocked down by a tiger. Instead of struggling with the animal, he permitted it to maul his arm so as to let one of his party shoot it.

Her Own Worst Worry.

"You say she worries herself unnecessarily over trifling things?" said one of two women who were speaking about the ways of another.

"Worries?" was the answer. "Why, she's more trouble to herself than a family of children!"—New York Sun.

Easy.

White—Have you any trouble in making both ends meet? Green—Not a bit. The end of my money and the end of the week always come at the same time.—Harper's Bazar.

Two of a Kind.

Convict No. 671 (ex-burglar) leaned confidentially over to his companion, a new addition, and whispered: "What yer in for, sonny?" "Five years. And you?" "Same. Pinched a gold cup wot some one give as a prize in a race an' the thing turned out to be on'y gilt arter all. Whatcher larfin' at?"

Convict 999 (ex-company promoter)—He, he! I'm the chap who gave the cup!—London Tit-Bits.

Telling Tales.

"That," said the professor, "is an Egyptian queen. She is at least 3,000 years old."

"My!" exclaimed the girl with large fluffy hair. "I'll bet she'd be annoyed if she knew you were telling it!"—Exchange.

Rubbing it In.

Patient (angrily)—The size of your bill makes my blood boil. Doctor—Then that will be $20 more for sterilizing your system.—Boston Transcript.

Laying the Snare.

"For whom is she wearing black, her late husband?" "No, for her next. She knows she looks well in it!"—Judge.

There is a difference between being busy and being industrious.

A LITTLE LESSON IN ECONOMY QUESTION.—Suppose you have two men working for you. The first you pay $1 a day; the second $2. The second man does three times as much work as the first. Which is cheaper for you? ANSWER.—The second man because he gives you better value for your money. NOW TAKE LIGHTS. Oil lamps seem cheap when none of the disadvantages are taken into consideration. But for very little more you can have electric lamps giving many times the light. Besides they are clean, odorless, safe and convenient. When you consider how little more you pay, and how much more service you get, you cannot but agree that, at our present rates, electricity furnishes the best and cheapest service.
