CHANGE MADE IN DISPATCHERS

NIGHT CHIEFSHIP ABOLISHED IN LA GRANDE.

C. M. Andrews and Lynch Leave and Macfarland Comes Here.

Through the abolishing of the night chief dispatchers chair, C. M. Andrews for the past year or more officiating in that capacity in the O.-W. R. & N. dispatchers office in this city, has lost out, and left early this morning for Corvallis where he assumes a position in the traffic department of the S. P. and Corvallis & Eastern. Mr. Andrews was formerly in the traffic department leaving that for the operative side of railroading a few years ago. At Corvallis Mr. Andrews assumes the joint agency at the depot of the Corvallis & Eastern which runs to Newport and for the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Andrews and children will join him soon. J. D. Lynch has also resigned his position and has gone to Spokane. A new office in the list of operators at the local station now is J. O. Macfarland who has been doing extra work on the O.-W. R. & N., for some time, coming here as a permanent addition to the force of brass pounders.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have made many warm friends in social and business circles who will deeply regret their departure to other towns.

A Famous Walking Match.

Thomas Bailey Aldrich was one of the characters made notable in a celebrated walking match which was got up by Dickens during his second visit to America. The match was a stretch of about six miles over the Boston milldam toward Newton Center. In the articles of agreement the signatures were stated to be:

- The Boston Bantam.....J. R. Osgood
- Massachusetts Jimmy.....James T. Fields
- The Gasmill Gasser.....Charles Dickens
- At the dinner given by the contestants at the Parker House, in Boston, after the fatigues of the match were over there were present besides the above:
- Hyperion.....H. W. Longfellow
- Hosea Biglow.....J. R. Lowell
- The Autocrat.....O. W. Holmes
- The Bad Boy.....T. B. Aldrich

Remembered the Accent.

"Queen Mary," said the teacher to the class in the history lesson, "loved France so much that she declared 'Catinis' would be found written across her breast after she was dead."

"Pausing a moment, the teacher looked at a boy steadily. "Jimmy Smith," she said, "you were not listening."

"Oh, yes, I was," Jimmy replied. "Well, what did Queen Mary say would be found written across her breast?"

"Kelly," was little Jimmy's triumphant reply.—Exchange.

Economizing.

"My dear, we simply have got to economize."

"Mercy sakes! Haven't I been economizing! Instead of letting Willie have money for car fare I'm sending him in the automobile to his dancing class."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Severe Test.

He—Yes, darling, when I am with you I feel inspired—as if I could do some perfect thing. She—Maybe you could order a luncheon that I would like without consulting me.—Park.

"Good luck" results from well directed efforts to succeed.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for 15 years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by all dealers.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

WAR DECLARED.

Catarrh Germs Must Be Conquered or Health Will Be Destroyed.

If you have catarrh you must vanquish an army of persistent, destructive microbes before you can get rid of it.

You might as well choose your weapons, declare war and annihilate this army of catarrh germs right now.

Stomach dosing won't kill them; neither will sprays or douches.

HYOMEI, a pleasant, antiseptic, germ destroying air breathed over the entire membrane will put the catarrh germs out of business in short order.

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is guaranteed by the Newlin Drug Company to end catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, coughs, colds and croup, or money back. If you own a little HYOMEI hard rubber pocket inhaler you can get a separate bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents. If you haven't an inhaler buy a complete outfit that only costs $1.00

Management

While large capital and surplus, together with ample resources and modern facilities, are important factors in the stability of every financial institution, its strength depends principally upon the men who direct its affairs. The management of this bank is composed of men having long experience in banking and commercial affairs, and they are well known for their sound judgement and for their influence in the community.
