A LITTLE LESSON IN ECONOMY

QUESTION—Suppose you have two men working for you. The first you pay $1 a day; the second $2. The second man does three times as much work as the first. Which is cheaper for you?

ANSWER—The second man because he gives you better value for your money.

NOW TAKE LIGHTS. Oil lamps seem cheap when none of the disadvantages are taken into consideration. But for very little more you can have electric lamps giving many times the light. Besides they are clean, odorless, safe and convenient.

When you consider how little more you pay, and how much more service you get, you cannot but agree that, at our present rates, electricity furnishes the best and cheapest service. Phone Main 34 for rates.

FIRST AID TO HURT TRAINMEN

SOUTHERN PACIFIC INSTALLS KIT ON TRAINS.

These "First Aids" Are to Be Found on All Trains for the Crews.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—(Special)—In an effort to minimize fatal results from what first appear to be only minor accidents, the Southern Pacific company, through its chief surgeon, Dr. F. K. Almsworth, has ordered installed on the baggage cars, combination cars and cabooses, what are known universally as "first aid" packages. Ever since the railroads of the country first became interested in first aid work, the Southern Pacific trains have been equipped with "first aid" kits, but these were so large that when one was opened only one or two were used and several were left to become dirty and unfit for medical use.

The "first aid" packages contain only sufficient bandages and dressings for one wound and a sufficient number of packages are placed in each car to take care of a large number of wounds should it happen that any great number of persons incur injuries at the same time. Danger from train accidents, which has been minimized to such an extent during the last few years by modern equipment and safety devices, is further diminished by having these "first aid" packages at hand at all times, and practically all train crews have become skilled in rendering the first aid work.

TOOK HIM AT HIS WORD.

He Was Willing to Stand for a Dollar, and He Did.

It was 8:30, and the theater was crowded.

"What have you left?" a prospective purchaser inquired of the treasurer.

"How many, sir?" the treasurer asked.

"Two."

"I have two left in the twelfth row," the treasurer said, taking the tickets from the rack. "They're the last two seats I have in the house."

"How much?" the other asked cautiously.

"Two dollars," was the reply.

"Two dollars!" the patron repeated. "I can't stand for that."

"Well, will you stand for a dollar?" the ticket dispenser inquired.

"Gladly," the other cried, scenting a bargain and laying a dollar on the ledge.

The treasurer replaced the two tickets in his rack and handed out two others after placing the bill in his cash drawer.

"There they are, sir," he said. "First door to your right."

The man and his friend hurried inside and "stood" for a dollar. The wily treasurer, taking him at his word, had sold him two admission tickets.—Lippincott's.

History of the Sardine.

The sardine has been honored with a history, the writer being no less a personage than a member of the Societe Academique of Nantes. The sardine in the early days was brought in in small boats. Then came a police ordinance in 1738 in the interest of the poorer classes against the monopolist. Owing to the police ordinance the sardine was a source of livelihood to the Bretons. Joseph Cillin, whose name is still revered in Nantes, first prepared the fish with oil. His venture was a great success, and he had many imitators. In 1835 there was something like a crisis in the sardine industry. Millet, who was the chief curer, had his factory indicted as a nuisance, but the difficulty was overcome by removing it from the center of the town to the shore. Although the fame of the sardine was firmly established, it was only in 1855 that it received its apotheosis. Then it was shown in the Paris exhibition.—London Globe.

PIERCE GIVEN JURY VERDICT

WIN FROM SUN INSURANCE COMPANY.

Fifteen Hundred Dollars at Issue Are Awarded to Senator.

Circuit Judge J. W. Knowles this morning directed a verdict in favor of Mr. Pierce for $1,500 for damages sustained in the destructive fire of a year or so ago when the Pierce warehouse was fired by a spark from the branch line engine, entailing a loss of more than $20,000. The Sun Insurance company carried a policy of $1,500 on the warehouse and contents but claimed that because the warehouse was partially on the O. R. & N. right of way, the insurance company was not held liable; claimed that Mr. Pierce stored hay when this was in violation of the policy stipulations. These two contentions were offset by witnesses to prove that the local agent was aware of these conditions when the policy was in effect. The court ordered a verdict for Mr. Pierce.
