AT THE CHURCHES.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Sermons at 11:00 and at 7:30.
The large reorganized choir under the deft hand of Mrs. Laura Green Wills "makes all the difference in the world" in the helpful interest at the morning hour; while the evening choir under the direction of Miss Breakeridge makes the same proportionate difference in that service.

The Sunday school is at 9:45, F. H. Green, supt.; and the league is at 6:30. The evening sermon as well as that of the morning will be by the pastor, J. D. GILLILAN, D. D., Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church.

Subject of morning sermon, "The Beauty of a Life of Service."
In the evening there will be a song service.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m., superintendent, Mr. C. A. Small.
Junior C. E., 4:00 p. m. Leaders, Miss Bork and Mrs. Ritter.
C. E. service, 6:30 p. m.

On Thursday evening Rev. Chas. A. Phipps will deliver an address on "The Men and Religion Forward Movement." This is a union service and all who are interested may count it their service. Rev. Phipps is a very entertaining speaker.

REV. S. W. SEEMANN, D. D., Minister

EASTERN TEAMS LOOK STRONGER

years. Last fall Cornell developed a lot of green men into a fairly good football team. This year the coaches hope to reap their reward.

The fact that the annual contest be back, and Captain Hart, fullback. There are also a number of excellent substitutes trying for the team, so that optimism reigns supreme in Tiger town.

Sometimes a team is handicapped by too many veterans, because this condition of things tends to make a team overconfident and keeps down the list of new candidates. This may or may not prove to be the case at Princeton.

Prospects at Yale are rosy enough, although the Elis have lost more men than Princeton. Captain Howe and Fullback Kistler are the only veterans in the back field. Day and Field having graduated, the latter now acting as head coach. In the line Kilpatrick is gone at one end and Morris is missing at center. Scully and Paul are back at tackle, and Childs should make a capable guard.

Yale's greatest good fortune is the possession of Howe as quarterback. This is his third year on the Yale team. He held down the position on Captain Coy's well nigh perfect eleven in 1909, and last year he was about all that stood between the team and utter rout.

Harvard has lost but few players, the principal losses being McKay, the All American tackle; Withington, his mate on the other side of the line; O'Flaherty, quarterback, and Minot, fullback. With the exception of McKay these positions will be easily filled. Last year Harvard had a number of high class backs—enough, in fact, for two or three back fields. Potter is likely to be first choice for quarterback, with Campbell and Wendell completing the quartet.

In the number of veterans lost Pennsylvania suffers far worse than either Princeton or Yale.

In some ways the Red and Blue is more fortunate than appears from the foregoing. This is due to the fact that there is some unusually good material from the 1910 freshmen eleven, which was the champion first team of the east.

Pennsylvania's real problem will be, as heretofore, the development of a heavy line. This will be the more difficult because, as a rule, the Quakers are not blessed with an abundance of heavy men.

Cornell has brighter prospects than for a number of years on account of the large number of men from last year's eleven who are eligible this fall and the efficiency of the coaching system, which is regarded as the best in tween the eleven of the Naval and Military academies will this year break the tie occasioned by the seven victories of each service team gives special interest to the football season at Annapolis and West Point. Last year the Navy won, a field goal being the only score of the game. This year neither team loses heavily by graduation, and one of the stiffest games in the series is expected.

Western Football Outlook.

In the west a splendid fight for the conference eight title is anticipated. Although Michigan is out of the fold, there is one game which will furnish a line on the comparative strength of Michigan and other members of the conference. Nebraska will meet both Minnesota and Michigan, and the results of these contests should go a long way in determining the relative strength of the Wolverines and Gophers.

Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan will put the most formidable eleven on the field. Wisconsin is again an unknown quantity, as is Chicago and Northwestern. Iowa rejoices in the return of practically all of its veterans of last year, and the Hawkeyes may cut considerable figure.

Purdue, with a disastrous season last year, is hopeful, and Coach Horr has the nucleus of a fast team.

Chicago and Northwestern have suffered most by desertions, at least at this stage, the gloom at the two institutions being thick enough to cut with an ax. Coach Stagg has lost practically all of his last year's stars, and Coach Hammett of the purple squad is in the same boat.

Coach Sheldon of Indiana will have a good team, according to reports.

Minnesota, according to the advance dope, should have a better team than last year, when the Gophers disputed with Michigan the championship of the west. Enough of the old men are back to give the machine the proper impetus at the start, and new men are available to keep it going to the finish without a hitch.

Michigan will not suffer if the dope is read right. Coach Yost has plenty of old and new material to turn out a winning combination. Among the newcomers especially there are several stars who are likely to be heard from.

At the University of Wisconsin two former gridiron stars are in charge. John Richard and Earl Driver, two of the best players whom the Badger institution ever turned out, will try to put the Cardinals back on their feet.

Illinois, which claimed the championship of the west last year, will be back with as strong if not a stronger team. That is not according to the coaches, but the students can see nothing but a victory over Minnesota, which is the principal aim in life at the university for the time being.

The strong teams are not confined to the "big eight" or to Michigan. There are plenty of others on the border land of greatness. Notre Dame and Marquette eleven will probably show the others the way to the goal posts. Lake Forest and De Paul teams also are promising, while Nebraska must be considered on par with some of the "big eight" eleven.
