Get Sponges Worth Their Price

You are sure to here. Sponges seem high—they are higher than they once were. There's greater demand for good sponges than there is production.

The profit on sponges is slight to dealers. The fact that it is small has made us extremely careful in our buying. We have learned to buy sponges right by being careful. That is why we can furnish our customers with considerable better goods for price than can be had elsewhere. We like to sell sponges even if the profit is small. We know the customer will be satisfied and we find that satisfying customers stimulates trade greatly.

Bath Sponges, Toilet Sponges, Carriage Sponges, Housecleaning Sponges and Sponges for every conceivable use are in our stock. Every sponge worth what is asked for it. See our sponges and judge for yourself.
