LOUIS GUILTY OF TRAFFICKING

CHIEF OF POLICE AND D. C. BRICHOUX ARE HOME.

Frank Chattas, Local Greek, Gets Into Trouble Over Testimony.

Chris Louis was convicted of white slavery at Portland this week in the United States circuit court and Frank Chattas, a local Greek, is out on bond while the commissioner is considering a charge of perjury growing out of testimony given by Chattas on the witness stand in the behalf of Louis, also a Greek.

Louis is the man who was arrested here some time ago and was indicted and consequently convicted on the confession of Grace Dillman, the Pendleton girl who, it is stated in Louis' escapades and the testimony of Chief of Police Walden and D. C. Brichoux of the Savoy hotel. These men returned home this morning after having attended the trial and being detained an extra day to appear against Chattas. The story of the white slave trafficking as told in the Observer at the time of the arrest, was corroborated from several different sources and the defendant was convicted on four different counts. He has not been sentenced as yet, but about 12 years is what he will receive if it is said, the imprisonment being at a federal prison.

Chattas' troubles came up when he testified in Louis' behalf. He denied having told Chief Walden, and others, certain facts in La Grande and immediately after he had concluded he was arrested on a perjury charge and his case taken under advisement. Grace Dillman made an excellent witness for the prosecution and told her story to the jury exactly as she had confessed it to the police here.

FORGERY CHARGES

council at that time, save W. J. Church who was not present on the fateful evenings, and that of the water superintendent at that time.

G. T. Fleming and J. K. Sheak are the first to take oath. They affirm that each for himself and not for the other say they deny having signed such report—the one referred to—and further say that there were not in favor of making such a report for that said work wasn't completed and has not been completed and has been understood by the council ever since that the work would not be accepted and has never been accepted nor has such contract been completed by the said Newport Engineering company. Mr. Sheak and Mr. Fleming swear to these statements before C. H. Finn, notary public.

Other Councilmen Take Oath.
J. E. Orvis, Bernard Logsdon and G. T. Fleming, swear that they were present on the evening of August 17, 1910, when the minutes show the report was adopted, and they swear that they never saw or never heard read what purports to be the report of the water committee accepting the recommending of acceptance of the Second street pipe line work. They swear that they were present on the following meeting night, the 24th, and never heard the minutes of the previous meeting read to include said report and that said report was not read at all. C. H. Finn is again the notary public who administered the oath.

W. M. Monroe Takes Oath.
Another oath attached to the resolution is that of W. M. Monroe who says he has examined the foregoing affidavit of J. K. Sheak, J. E. Orvis, Bernard Logsdon and G. T. Fleming and "I say from my knowledge and remembrance as a member of the city council of La Grande on that date, being present at the meeting of August 17, 1910, and of August 24, 1910, that the contents of said affidavit are in all things true as I remember them." C. H. Finn is the notary in this instance too.

H. C. Gilman corroborates these oaths with one of his own.
