

JUSTICE ON BENCH 4 A. M.

STRIKERS ROUNDED UP FOR TRESPASSING.

Defendants Say They Were Only on Platform, Handed for Perry.

STRIKE END PREDICTED.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—International Secretary Kramer of the blacksmiths union had unofficial information by strike leaders of the Illinois Central that a settlement of the strike is impending. He said it is understood that the only question is of threshing out concessions before an agreement ending the strike is reached.

Arrests growing out of a near-morning, near fracas at the O-W depot last night and subsequent dismissal of three union defendants by Justice of the Peace Williams at a 4 o'clock a. m. session, has added another chapter to the list of minor incidents connected with the federation strike now on here. Three union men, machinists, all of them, and residents of La Grande, were rounded up by four or five deputies who are guarding the interests of the company, and after some delay all were released because no one had sworn out a warrant of arrest.

The strikers say the trespass charge was incorrectly preferred for the men say they were on the depot platform when the arrest was made and not on company property in generally accepted terms. The strikers relate the story this way:

"These three men, all of them well known, had been talking to some strikebreakers on the depot platform about 2 o'clock this morning. Soon afterwards the night foreman approached the group and asked the strikebreakers to return to their work. The strikers themselves addressed the foreman then and shortly afterwards purchased tickets for Perry, Oregon. The night train had not arrived yet. On reaching the platform again further discussion took place and guards were ordered to arrest the three union men. They were taken to the courthouse but demanded immediate trial and in compliance with this wish, Justice Williams was called down town. This was about 4 o'clock this morning."

Justice Williams said today that there actually was no session of his court for on demanding warrants of arrest none were forthcoming and he dismissed the matter with that.

The Days Reports.

"From 15 to 25 interstate commerce defects on freight trains passing through La Grande every day are being noted," says the strikers' report today.

"Engine 362 is dead on account of its boiler leaking.

"Engine 536 is dead on account of defective machinery.

"All passenger trains late from one to five hours."

Ask Governors to Help.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Governors of 14 states directly affected by the strike of federation shop employees of the Harriman lines, will be asked to take a hand in the attempt to compel adequate inspection of cars and locomotives under the interstate commerce laws, according to General Secretary Scott of the shopmen's federation in a formal statement.

Scott asked the strikers everywhere to report specific instances of violations of the inspection laws to the secretary of the interstate commerce commission, a Washington, and violations of laws governing safety appliances on trains to H. W. Belknap, chief inspector at Washington.

Ancient Tales of the Law.

Of law and the "law's delays" these ancient tales are recorded:

A woman vainly pleading her case many times before Phillip of Macedonia received at every refusal the reply that he "had not the time." At last her patience gave out and she said to him, "Then cease to reign." The monarch, feeling that he had deserved this rebuke, immediately listened to her and rendered the justice that her case merited.

Anacharsis, the Scythian philosopher, speaking of the laws of Solon, said, "They were like the web of a spider—very good for holding the weak, but allowing the strong to escape."

A petty thief was being led to prison. Diogenes said to him: "Fool, why didn't you rob on a grand scale? Then it would have been you that would be sending others to prison."
