GROCER HOME FROM EAST.

Six Weeks' Trip Ended—Finds Eastern Conditions Quiet.

After six weeks spent in a tour to New York, having on its itinerary all the big tourist centers of the east and middle west, E. Polack, proprietor of the City Grocery, is home today. During his trip he found business quiet but not discouragingly so and it is apparent that presidential and other political issues are the only reasons behind it. Oregon was much talked off by men with whom he came in contact and the east still has many faces turned toward the land of the setting sun.
