Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been taking it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists. eod & wkly

BETTER STREETS TO HOSPITAL

IMPROVEMENTS INCLUDE WALKS AND DRIVEWAYS.

Macadam Street Approach Completed by Contractor Mars.

Macadam surface to the street in front of the Grande Ronde Hospital; macadam driveways to the hospital from the street and cement walks have been constructed this fall, giving paved approach to the hospital and removing the gulf of mud which has been a constant menace to patrons and doctors of the hospital during the winter months since the hospital was completed. John L. Mars has just completed the work.

The macadam street paving is 240 feet long and about the width of the street. The driveways from the street to the building entrances are being improved too.

It has previously been a fact that in muddy weather it was extremely hard and tedious to get a team or ambulance to the hospital and the improvements that have been made there this fall will alleviate this and the public will enjoy the expenditures of the hospital company as well as the patrons of the institution.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that exceeds it." For sale by all dealers. eod & wkly

STARKEY NEWS AND PERSONALS

HUNTERS WEND THEIR WAY TO UP RIVER POINTS.

Starkey Personals and News Items of General Interest.

Starkey, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Fred Boyd of the Athena Press, with a party passed up the line a few days ago on a hunting expedition.

Ralph Sullivan and Bill Beverage made a business trip to La Grande this week.

Wm. Muir of the Indiana mines was a Starkey visitor last Sunday. Mr. Muir has taken up a homestead near here and will become a resident as soon as he gets his house built.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Robinson have moved to Perry for the winter.

Howard Peck and family of Hildgard, have moved here for the winter. Charles Oria and Mr. Avery of La Grande, have business up the Grande Ronde river this week.

Fred and Elmer Myres of Cove, are business visitors here today.

We are having bright sunny days and cold and frosty nights.

Carson Mines Shut Down.

(North Powder News.)

The Camp Carson mine is closed for the winter and all supplies are being hauled away. The mine is said to have been a good paying property, but owing to some difficulties which arose a short time ago between the two promoters of the company there has been some and will be more airing in the courts of its affairs, before anything definite in regard to its future plans are known.

SHOW A REAL SCREAM.

A real scream, from start to finish, tells the whole story of "Baby Mine" presented to a large audience at the Steward Saturday evening and any one whose sides didn't ache has an incurable grinch. There is a trace of something akin to asylums about the whole plot and situations so ludicrous, side-splittingly funny, break and pop out like bullets from an automatic, from the time the curtain is lifted on the introductory scene until the last.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" held the bunting here, for several years, as a laugh producer, but no more—"Baby Mine" must be conceded the distinction.

The plot which is a complex, composite and intricate one, thickens quickly and is difficult to keep clear in places but the actors were good, and some of them even better than good.

As a sure cure for indigestion—provided laughs abet indigestion—is contained in "Baby Mine."
