PASSENGERS ON TIME.

Salt Lake Connection Reached Here From the East on Schedule.

Passenger trains were on time this morning, though the westbound was a Salt Lake connection, resulting from a wreck on the Union Pacific yesterday morning. The Chicago train was held up 14 hours and will arrive here this evening accordingly. The connection, however, was on time. No. 6 was also in on time.

FANCY APPLES PLEASE BUYERS

THRONSON COMPANY INTRODUCES NEW VENTURE.

Will Receive Orders for Highest Grades for Home Use.

Placing on the La Grande market fancy apples such as are almost invariably sent to outside buyers meets with favor among local people. In years past it has been hard to get the very best varieties of apples in La Grande, in the heart of the fancy apple producing climes. The best was general sent away to pull down top notch prices, but this year the Thronson Fruit company of Imbler is going to meet this demand and from now on it will not be meet and just for La Grangers to complain about the variety of apples offered for home consumption. The best that Imbler offers is on the local markets. Orders for these grades will be received until Nov. 1.

Content with conditions of the market yesterday, dealers, wholesalers and retailers, have no change in quotations this morning. Quotations read:

OLD SCHOOL PRINT SUFFERERS.

B. F. Young of Wallawa County Taken by Paralytic Stroke.

Wallawa, Ore., Oct. 24. (Special)—B. F. Young, a printer and newspaper man of 51 years at the trade was stricken with paralysis Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock at the home of his son son Ed, who lives on Smith mountain 12 miles north of Wallawa. His entire left side was paralyzed and it is feared that it will affect his heart so that he will not live long. Mr. Young served his apprenticeship on the San Francisco Alto, and belongs to the old school of the printing fraternity, and has followed the printing business ever since in California, Oregon and Washington. Just before coming here to visit with his son last spring he sold his newspaper plant at Kent, Wash.

ENEMIES FRIENDLY TO TAFT.

Minneapolis Receives President With Open Arms This Morning.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—That politics make strange bedfellows was evidenced today here during Pres. Taft's visit. Two republican factions brokefasted together with the president and no spirit of enmity was present. Senator Nelson, former Congressman Tawney, standpatters, sat on one side of Taft, and Senator Clapp, a leading progressive, sat on the other.

Breakfast over the party left the Madison hotel, and went to the University of Minnesota where the president addressed the students. At noon he was the guest at lunch of the Young Men's club, and this afternoon his auto toured around the lake.
