PILOT ROCK IS VISITED BY FIRE

EATING PLACES ARE IN ASHES TODAY.

Whole Town Seriously Threatened Yesterday Morning.

(Pendleton East Oregonian.)
The most disastrous fire in the history of Pilot Rock early this morning reduced to a heap of ashes the Pilot Rock livery barn, the Pilot Rock hotel, and the J. K. Smith restaurant, with most of the contents of the three buildings and for a time threatened the destruction of the whole town. In fact, according to advices from that town, had it not been for the heroic work of volunteer firemen, assisted by the dampness from the recent rain, the flames would undoubtedly have swept the town off the map. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

The cause of the fire is unknown; it had its origin in the buggy shed adjoining the livery barn and was discovered about 2 o'clock by John Wilson, who was sleeping in the barn. Quickly the whole town was aroused and the combating of the flames began.

McManus Property Endangered.

The Smith restaurant and the Pilot Rock hotel stood on the south side of Willow street in a row with the livery barn and they were quickly ignited by the leaping flames. The postoffice building owned by J. P. McManus and the McManus residence just across the street were afire several times but the bucket brigade mounted to the roofs and by valiant work saved these buildings. The Carnes Bros. mercantile store also had a narrow escape and would undoubtedly have been lost had the building not been moved back sixty feet recently preliminary to the erection of a new building.

All of the contents of the livery barn with the exception of the fourteen head of horses stabled there perished and most of the furniture of the hotel was lost, although several pieces were removed from the ground floor rooms. The restaurant was practically a complete loss.

Without eating facilities.

The fire leaves Pilot Rock without eating houses. On March 17, the City hotel, also owned by Mr. Smith, was burned to the ground and the town was then badly handicapped in its accommodations for strangers. Mr. Smith soon leased the Morse store building and started a restaurant and now for the second time has had his business destroyed by fire. The Pilot Rock hotel was one of the oldest public buildings in the town, having been erected thirty years ago. Recently Mr. Boyer made improvements in it to the amount of several hundred dollars.

TAX COMPANY NOT AGENTS

ORDINANCE NOW IN COMMITTEE MISUNDERSTOOD.

Each Agent Here Carries Several Companies—Act on Measure Soon.

Insurance companies and not insurance agents are to be called upon to pay annual license fees by the ordinance now in a council committee and to be put up for final passage soon. Due to inaccurate statement of the facts in the case yesterday by the Observer the opinion prevails that it is to be the individual agents, all of them local people, who are to pay this fee. It is the companies themselves and has nothing to do with the agents directly. Each agent carries several companies as a rule, and it is the companies that the ordinance stipulates.

No certainty prevails as to the amount of the fee, but it is presumed that each agent will be required.

Averis Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been taking it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Touring with an "INDIAN" is so pleasant and sure

That a journey of 1000 miles has long ceased to be a matter of comment. A host of Indian Motorcycle riders do that, and more, every year. Volney Davis crossed the continent twice for fun, once for a record, and is now crossing a fourth time for the pleasure of riding an Indian. Reliability, Power, Efficiency makes touring a pleasure.
