ATTRACTIONS CLAIMED GOOD

COMIC OPERA SATURDAY AND A DRAMA MONDAY.

Steward Presenting Two Good Numbers for Theatre Goers Here.

THE NEXT STEWARD ATTRACTIONS.

Saturday night—"The Golden Girl" a spectacular musical comedy.
Monday night—"The White Sister," a drama of rare qualities.

Ensembles of dazzling gorgeousness and a host of novel stage effects... The curtain rises on the grounds of West Point, the Stars and Stripes fluttering in the breezes of the Hudson gleaming between the palisades in the distance.

The atmosphere of romance, subtle but real, marks both the opening and the close of this interesting musical play. Between, there is a dress scene with its novelties, in which the two principal characters have visions of the past and future.

ENGINEERS.

D. W. C. NELSON—Mining Engineer. Baker City, Oregon.

"Girl" contains a number of musical hits, the most popular being "I Can't Love anybody," "I Want to Fight Like Ma," "Wine, Woman and Song," and many others. The Frisco Frolic, the sensation dance of New York and Chicago, is one of the features of the already overstocked musical play.

With the coming of Jeane Towler in "The White Sister," at the Steward theatre on next Monday night, lovers of the drama have in store a distinctive dramatic treat. To those who have not even this distinguished player in one of the most striking roles she has ever assumed, it should be sufficient to say that it will be a misfortune to miss this opportunity of seeing a play of powerful grip and intense interest, that is, if you desire for your dramatic enlightenment and entertainment a star of the first rank in one of the highest class offerings we have had submitted on the stage today.

INJUNCTION MAY HALT SALOONS

VICTORY OF WETS IN JOSEPH ENDS LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Alleged Flaw to Be Made Grounds for Thorough Airing in Court.

Joseph, Ore., Nov. 8.—(Special)—The "home-rule" local option election held here Tuesday was an overwhelming victory for the "wets." The official canvass made by the judges of election appointed both by the Walla-walla county court and the Joseph city council showed the following result: For prohibition, 52; against prohibition, 97. Considerable interest was taken in the election and about thirty voters were sworn in, their names not appearing on the last registration books.

Injunction to Be Sought.

That saloons will not be opened immediately as a result of the election seems certain, inasmuch as a local attorney was engaged all day Tuesday working on injunction papers. Circuit court meets within a few days and it is thought that the matter will be settled in the lower courts without much delay, but an appeal to the supreme court will delay final action until after next March. The alleged defects in the election, it is understood, are the failure of the county court to fix the territorial limits of the city of Joseph as a separate precinct, prior to the election, and that an election may not be legally held at this time, under the provisions of the Oregon local option law. Is First Home Rule Test. This is the first test of the "home-rule" amendment to the state constitution held at the polls in this part of the state, in a county legally "dry," Walla-walla county having gone "dry" as a whole in 1906 and remained in that column, notwithstanding an election has been held every election since. Joseph precinct went "wet" one year ago, but the precinct embraced outside territory.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, will vote next week on the question of adopting the commission plan of government.
