METROPOLITANS TO COME

SEVEN STARS OF THE MUSICAL WORLD EN ROUTE.

Early December Will Hear Artists Perform.

Stars from the Metropolitan Opera company of New York, seven in number, are to come to La Grande early in December. An advance agent attracted by the reputation La Grande holds of patronizing classical programs and of being the best patronizers of high priced productions, has finally closed a date with the management of the D. S. tabernacle and further notice of the stars' coming will be read by the Observer readers soon.

The scintillating galaxy of stars is somewhat similar to the troupe of Metropolitan people who appeared at the L. D. S. tabernacle a few years ago and whereat a large audience was entertained with as classical a program as has been rendered in this city.

With the probability of Beatrice Dierke coming this month to render a piano recital and the Metropolitan people coming in December, musical people are truly in line for many big treats.

NEW BRIDGES ORDERED

Local Bridge Builder Aids Wallowa County Build Her Bridges.

Seven new steel bridges are being ordered in by the county court of Wallowa county and Bridge Superintendent J. F. Campbell of this city has been called upon to give official advice as to the best way of constructing the bridges. Mr. Campbell has already put in three large bridges for Wallowa county and the work was so well done that the county court called upon him to put in seven more. One of these seven is to go in at the head of Nine-mile canyon, providing a cut off on the abandoned roadway to the town of Wallowa, where the road now leads in a circuitous route.
