WRANGLINGS DRAW CROWDS

STREET TO DEPOT OBSTRUCTED BY WARRING FACTIONS.

Strikers and Strikebreakers Have Words and Police Interfere.

Bad blood existing between O-W strikers and strikebreakers in the local railroad shops cropped out again last night at Depot and Jefferson when a wrangling crowd gathered and obstructing the sidewalk, created a disturbance. Without regard for who was responsible Officer McLachlen ordered the men to move on and all but one or two did so. A passing strikebreaker was indirectly responsible for refanning the flame again for a striker let out a cry of "scab" which brought the police to him. No arrests were made but Officer McLachlen and Officer Brady made it clear that regardless of who was responsible, the disturbances on the street would have to end.

The trouble took a tangent shortly afterward when a young man, neither a striker nor a strikebreaker was the object of contention. Nothing serious resulted however, and the trouble was finally passed over but in the meantime it was neither safe nor pleasant for women to go to the depot or return to town.

ROUNDUP PICTURES SOON

STEWART TO SHOW CHEYENNE PICTURES HERE.

The 1911 Celebration to Be Reproduced on Screen Here.

The 1911 Cheyenne cowboy and Indian celebration motion pictures have been booked by Manager Stewart for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 16, 17 and 18, afternoons and evenings.

This is the first chance the people of La Grande have had to see a real "Round up" right in their own town and those who saw the Pendleton "Round up" will no doubt be anxious to see the Cheyenne pictures and those who were not at Pendleton can see at the Stewart a real wild west show in its entirety taken on the field during the three days' show. Buffalo Vernon, Dell Blancet and many of the feature attractions at the Pendleton show are shown in exactly the same stunts in the Cheyenne pictures. The bucking buffalos and Indian war dance are two of the many interesting pictures shown.

There are 3,000 feet of film in three reels and every foot is of the most exciting nature. There will be a matinee every afternoon at 2:30 and a continuous performance every night starting at 8 o'clock. Doors open at 7:45. The price of admission for evenings will be 25 cents and for the matinees 15 cents.

Every man, woman and child in La Grande should take advantage of seeing these "Round up" pictures. The photography is wonderful, assuring you clear and distinct films. Remember the dates, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 16, 17 and 18, afternoons and evenings.

an agricultural and industrial standpoint.

While this method of displaying the resources of the west, is, in itself, new, the unique feature of the tour will be the fact that the governors of the various states will accompany the exhibits as the official representatives of the states. It is said that the present is the first time in the history of the United States, that a congress of chief executives have banded for any similar purpose.

The remarkable fitness of the movement from a publicity standpoint is seen in the presence of the governors for while the visit of an exhibit train to any particular city would create a certain amount of interest in the inhabitants thereof, the fact that such a coterie of celebrities lend their presence to the project, adds a distinction that would not otherwise obtain, and assures for the tour the greatest amount of publicity.

The fact that the gubernatorial party will be joined from time to time by the governors of the states in which the special train happens to be journeying at the moment, senators, congressmen, correspondents of various newspapers and others adds to the value of the plan from a publicity standpoint.

After visiting 21 eastern cities, the special will return to St. Paul, Minn., with its party augmented by the addition of the senators and members of congress of the various northwestern states, where a conference lasting for three days will be held, to devise uniformity of action by the northwestern states and their immigration departments, in the matter of offsetting Canadian immigration.

That the United States government itself is cognizant of the efforts being made in this matter, and desires to assist, seems assured from the fact that no less a personage than President Taft has added his semi-official endorsement to the tour of the governors by formally inviting the party to visit him while on tour.

With the sole exception of Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, who, it is said, has called a special session of the legislature which will be in session at the time of the tour, each one of the chief executives of the ten states participating, will be on the special when it leaves St. Paul, on the evening of Nov. 27, on its memorable tour. Whether the hopes of its promoters and the good wishes of the western people will bear fruit, must be left to the near future, when a comparison of the immigration statistics will show whether the hordes of homeseekers will have been persuaded to develop their own country, or an alien one.

CRAIG HEARING IS POSTPONED

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL IS CHARGE.

Craig Trial Will Be Held December Fourth—Bail Is Fixed.

George Craig will not be tried for assault with intent to kill, a charge which has been preferred against him, until Dec. 4. The state's prosecutor will be in Wallowa county until that time and a postponement was granted yesterday afternoon when Craig was arraigned on the charge noted. His bond was placed at $500 which is expected to be liquidated.

Craig was arrested when he badly slashed with a knife the body of his friend, James Slack in a quarrel a few days ago. Slack has good chances for recovery.

Dodging Mother Meng.
Infant prodigies are not unknown in China, and Chinese Buddhists find it easy to account for them, says a correspondent of the London Chronicle. According to the doctrine of the transmigration of souls, persons passing through hades on their way to the wheel of life (which relaunches souls into the bodies of babies or animals just being born) have to cross a bridge. Before mounting the bridge they are stopped by an old hag called Meng, who, ladle in hand, compels each soul to drink a mouthful of the waters of forgetfulness, for which the popular name is Mother Meng's soup. Those who drink of this forget all that they had passed through or had known in their former life and thus on being reborn into the world are entirely ignorant. Some, however, manage to dodge Mother Meng and enter the world full of knowledge, which they display as soon as they can articulate.
