

OUR FAIR PLAY PLAN

If you knew positively where you could get most for your money, and get it quick that's where you would trade isn't it? Therefore no person should hesitate to order of us simply because he never has done so. YOU know us, you know our reputation, you know we stand back of every thing we sell and you know; YOUR MONEY BACK IF DISSATISFIED. We've worked on this fair play plan for 20 years, it is a well tried, satisfactory plan for us and for you. Trade with us, telephone us your orders, it means a saving to you.

Chance for Boy Murderer. Halifax, Nova Scotia, Nov. 15. Instead of being executed today in accordance with the original sentence imposed upon him, Harry Wilson, the boy murderer in jail at Digby, has been granted a reprieve of one month, with good chances of escaping the gallows altogether. Today the full bench convened in this city to take up his case, which has attracted wide attention throughout eastern Canada. The crime of which Wilson was convicted was the murder of his brother George Wilson. The tragedy is alleged to have resulted from a quarrel which with good chances of escaping the both the brothers were intoxicated.

COLLEEN BAWN COMING

ARCADE THEATRE TO PRODUCE IRISH MASTERPIECE.

Week From Today Will See Irish Film on Local Screen.

In June the Kalem company sent a selected company of America's greatest photo-players to Ireland, principally for the reproduction of Bouicault's greatest play. The artists erected a studio in the very heart of Ireland's beautiful scenic wonders. Through weeks of hard work from early morning until night the Colleen Bawn gradually grew into shape.

Every scene in this elaborate production was made on the actual spot in Ireland described in the original play. Several of the characters were portrayed by native Irish ladies and gentlemen.

Colleen Bawn comes here for two nights commencing one week from today at the Arcade theatre.

Mission Congress in Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 15.—The three-day Men's Missionary congress, for which Montreal has been preparing for many months, opened in the American Presbyterian church this afternoon, with Rev. Robert Johnston, D. D., presiding. The chief features of the initial session were addresses by Rev. Robert Speer on "The World's Debt to Missions," and Rev. Canon Gould on "The Central Place of Missions in the Life of Canada." Tomorrow the congress will have as the leading speaker Sir Andrew Fraser, late governor of Bengal, who is regarded as one of the world's greatest authorities on missionary problems.

National Grange in Session.

Columbus, O., Nov. 15.—The National Grange, the largest and most influential organization of farmers in America, met for its annual session in Columbus today with delegates present from every state. Additional interest is given the meeting this year by the probability that its attention will be called to the charges made that the organization is controlled by certain powerful factors whose activity in national politics has militated against the success of the National Grange and minimized its influence.
