MANY HEADS OF ROAD HERE

LOVETT, FARREL, O'BRIEN ARE AMONG VISITORS

Spend Few Hours Here Night Before Last, Going Through Here.

One of the greatest gatherings of Harriman officials that has been in La Grande at one time made a "flying" visit to this division point night before last. Judge R. S. Lovett, president of the Harriman system, J. D. Farrel, recently made president of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company, J. P. O'Brien, general manager and vice president of the O.-W., George W. Bosche, chief engineer, M. J. Buckley, general superintendent, William Bollons, superintendent, and many lesser lights of the Harriman system in the east, comprised the party. President Farrel, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Buckley, Mr. Bosche and Mr. Bollons comprised one special train that carried Mr. Farrel over the O.-W. in Eastern Oregon for the first time since his promotion to the presidency of this road, and the trip was in the nature of an inspection commencing at Huntington and working westward. The men arrived here from Huntington about 5:30 p. m. and awaited here until midnight when a special train carrying Judge Lovett, the supreme head of the Harriman systems, arrived from the east, consolidating the two trains which then proceeded westward and are now in Portland.

Not much of an inspection was made here on account of darkness and it is presumed that all the O.-W. officials will return to La Grande when Judge Lovett returns east after going to Seattle and other points in the northwest.

100,000 ACRE TRACT WANTED

EASTERN SYNDICATE ASKS FOR INFORMATION.

Want to Inaugurate New System of Encouraging Settlement.

A master business stroke is in store for Oregon if her citizens can procure for an eastern syndicate the desired number of acres at the desired price. A self-explanatory letter has been received by former General Passenger Agent William McMurray of the O.-W. which has been received by J. H. Keeney here. The letter which is of much interest, is appended:

Portland, Oregon—To Agent J. H. Keeney.—This office is in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. G. Nelmyer, our general agent in Chicago, of which the following is a copy:

"A syndicate in Chicago is endeavoring to locate 100,000 acres of land in one tract, if possible, and which can be purchased for less than $10 per acre which they proposed to sub-divide into 80-acre tracts, break up five acres of the land, build a house on same, furnish two horses and a wagon, and one cow, and then sell same on the installment plan.

"Parties have looked over land in Michigan and Wisconsin but claim it does not suit them, and will you not kindly advise if there is any such tract along our line which could be purchased at the price indicated and oblige."

If you know of any such tract tributary to your station which you have reason to believe would meet the condition of this proposition, please advise me at an early hour and include details that would be necessary to make intelligent report to Mr. Nelmyer. Please give this your careful consideration. Yours truly, Wm M. McMURRAY.

by the legislature to be elected next year and an interesting contest is in prospect. The situation has been somewhat simplified by the announcement of Governor Donaghey that he would be a candidate for re-nomination. For a long time doubt existed in the minds of the politicians as to whether the governor would try for another term or become a candidate for senator. His decision in the matter has left the senatorial contest a straight race between Senator Jeff Davis and former Congressman Stephen Brundidge, Jr., who is expected to be his only opponent. Mr. Brundidge represented the Second district in congress for ten years and has a strong following throughout the state.
