NEWS FORECAST FOR NEXT WEEK

Washington, Nov. 18.—J. Ogden Armour and a dozen other of the great Chicago packers are to be arraigned in the United States district court in Chicago Monday for trial on indictments alleged violations of the criminal provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act in the alleged maintenance of an "unreasonable" conspiracy to restrain the meat industry of the country. The federal government has spent eight years in its investigation of the alleged "beef trust" and an endeavor to bring the principals to the bar.

The so-called Steel trust investigating committee of the house of representatives is to resume its hearing in Washington Monday. It is expected the first inquiry will be directed toward rates charged for the transportation of ore by the steel trust roads in Minnesota. J. Pierpont Morgan and Andrew Carnegie are scheduled to appear before the committee and their testimony is awaited with keen anticipation.

Interest in the work of the interstate commerce commission is expected to center in the proposed investigation into the business of the express companies. The first hearing is to be held in New York Wednesday. The express companies have shown some disposition to oppose the investigation and it is not expected that any information will be gained in the matter except as the result of a strenuous fight.

The "Underwood for president" boom will probably be heard from during the week. In Birmingham a big banquet is to be given Thursday evening in honor of the minority leader in the house. The affair has been arranged by the democrats of Alabama and will be attended by prominent party leaders from all over the south.

John Parsons, Stewart, Ohio, writes "We use Foley's Honey & Tar compound as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure any of my seven children of cough. My 2-months' old baby has had a most severe cough which our doctor said he could not cure and that baby would surely die. Several of our relations and neighbors had gathered to witness the ending of the child's life. Two bottles of Foley's Honey & Tar compound cured the child and he is alive and well today."
