IMBLER SHIPS APPLE CROP

SEVERAL CARLOADS ALREADY SHIPPED OUT.

Other Items of Interest in and About Imbler Town and Orchards.

Imbler, Nov. 24.—(Special)—Imbler's banner apple crop is almost entirely packed and shipping to outside points has commenced. Several carloads have been shipped out even this early and the growers will have the remaining bulk ready for the market whenever it is deemed best to unload. This district is one of the few that was not seriously hurt by frosts last spring and the owners of orchards have real reason for feeling satisfied in view of the good prices obtainable for choice grades, as the choice grades department takes a vast percentage of the crop here this year.

Imbler is building street crossings, so that the speeding autos will now have to slow down to 50 miles an hour going through town or get gumped. The sand ridge roads are fine but the people can hardly get to La Grande to trade. Why?

The J. E. Bass store buildings and fixtures are to be sold at auction Dec. 30 to satisfy the creditors.

The Imbler basketball teams play a game tonight. High school boys vs. the high school girls.

ANNA DAY IS SKILLED.

"When Knighthood Was in Flower" Is in Strong Hands This Year.

With a supporting cast of 20 players, Miss Anna Day, the sterling American actress, will appear at the opera house on Wednesday night. Her performance in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," a dramatic play of the same name, is a major. This season, she is appearing in this well known play to be one of the quipped productions staged from a scenic play gives ample costumes, scenery, and management Miss Day is playing this season, has taken advantage of that opportunity. A record breaking house should greet the company when they play in this city.

Big Trade Enacted.

Wallowa, Ore., Nov. 24.—(Special)—L. Couch and B. E. Boyd of Enterprise have traded their stock in the East Oregon Mercantile company to Edward Mason, their other partner for the two buildings where are located the furniture store and the telephone office, a large dwelling house and five lots in the McDonald addition to Wallowa and six acres of the old Waller place adjoining the city limits.

The amount involved in the deal was about $13,000. Mr. Couch still holds a small interest and will retain the secretaryship in the corporation. Mr. Mason has proven himself a capable manager of the company's affairs and will continue the management with practically no change in the business.

Cecilia Loftus is to make another tour of the United States.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

I hereby announce my candidacy for recorder of the city of La Grande. Thanking the public for their support on December 11th, I am,

Yours truly,
C. M. HUMPHREYS.
