HIGH SCHOOL AFFAIRS OF INTEREST TO PARENTS

Week Vacation Commences—Splendid Program Carried Out at Joint Session of Literary Societies Last Night.

All next week is holiday—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the teachers will be at the Eastern Oregon Institute in Baker, and two more days at the week end are given in which to celebrate Thanksgiving week. The program at Baker promises to be one of the best ever heard in a similar institute. The speakers are deemed to be exceptionally fit to handle the themes assigned to them. Local officers of the Eastern Oregon Teachers' association predict that 95 per cent of the teachers of La Grande and the county at large will attend the convention.

Clarence Redhead, who had his leg mangled when fallen on by a horse last week is attending school on his crutches.

Thanksgiving offerings were collected this week from the grades and high school to be sent to the Boys and Girls' Aid society of Portland.

Adna B. Rogers under the direction of Arthur C. Williams is taking the school census this week.

Thanksgiving programs were rendered by all the grades Friday afternoon. The Tillcums and Aloha literary societies of the high school gave a joint program on that evening, at the auditorium of the high school building.

All the out-of-town students are contemplating returning to their respective home for Thanksgiving. They will be present again when school reopens a week from next

Monday, December 4th
 Parents and friends of high school students numbering over 200, were present at the first joint session of the two literary societies of the high school last evening to hear a splendid program of 11 numbers. From the opening solo to the last number the program bristled with wit, oratory, musical skill and other features that go to make an entertaining program. The arrangers of the program did exceptionally well in assigning parts and to those who carried them the parents and friends were profuse with compliments. The numbers follow:
 Piano Solo—Florence McLachlen.
 Current Events—Christine Wheatley.
 Piano Duet—Fern Geddes and Miss Ash.

The Hartville Shakespeare club Ida Billings, Grace Pickens, Hilda Anthony, Bessie Stoddard, Halle Adler, Maude Leadworth, and Ruth Ghormley.

Debate—"Resolved, That the United States and individual states should adopt the principle of judiciary recall." Affirmative, James Cerpe, negative Howard Geddes. A two to one decision in favor of the affirmative was reported by the judges.

Vocal Solo—Olive Massee.
 Original Story—Altha Chapman.
 Piano Solo—Florence Happerset.
 Dialogue—Naomi Kirtley and Nora Arbuckle.

Double Quartet—Winfield Eckley, Jay Shaw, Russell Ralston, Lynn Bohnenkamp, Merlin Batley, Harley Richardson, Willard Cargy and Avery Roberts.

TO THE VOTERS.

I hereby announce to the voters of La Grande that I am a candidate for chief of police. My work as an official in the past is my recommendation and I will appreciate any and all support given me.
 J. H. McLACHLEN.

A King Full.

When a man charged with disorderly conduct was arraigned by Patrolman Queen before a chief magistrate in the Adams street court, Brooklyn, the court asked, "What's your name?" "Thomas King," was the answer. "Ah," said the magistrate, "a queen captures a king." "Yes, but it wasn't a straight deal," retorted King. "Sure it was," interrupted Queen. "This man is a fourflusher." "What's your business?" "I dig for a living," answered King. "So you are a king of spades," laughed the magistrate. "Yes, but beaten by a club," answered King. "Can you come across with $2?" "A deuce of a fine," spoke up King, "but I'll see you." He handed over the money, and Clerk Hesterberg raked in the pot. "I see a joker's no good in this game," said King as he was leaving court.—Exchange.

New Ways of Serving Old Dishes.

The clever hostess can always show her ingenuity by a touch of novelty in the serving of some of the time honored courses at her dinner. Raw oysters, for instance, produce a very original effect when served with maple syrup or whipped cream.

A very palatable fish pudding may be prepared by mixing the finely chopped fish with sugar, raisins and a bit of vanilla extract, serving cold with a custard sauce.

A delicious dessert is onion jelly with caviar sandwiches and maraschino cherries. Try it.—Judge's Library.

Classified.

"You say you are your wife's third husband?" said one man to another during a talk.

"No, I am her fourth husband," was the reply.
 "Heavens, man!" said the first speaker. "You are not a husband—you're a babit."

Duty Done.

The pleasure a man of honor enjoys in the consciousness of having performed his duty is a reward he pays himself for all his pains.—La Bruyere.

Scientific Management

Eliminates Waste

Increases Efficiency

Apply scientific management to your lighting problem. You will get 100 per cent efficiency, whether you use one light or a hundred.

Electric lights are as necessary in the home as in the store. Anywhere, in fact, that lights are used, their brilliance, convenience, safety, and dependability make them almost indispensable.

Not the least attractive feature is their reasonable cost. Phone Main 34 for rates.
