In the study of London conducted by the Neighborhood club this year, "Residences" will be the theme of the next meeting, which occurs next Tuesday. The subjects will be: St. James Palace—Mrs. De Lile Green, Buckingham Palace—Mrs. Thelsen, Marlborough House—Mrs. J. T. Richardson. Mrs. Hunter, vice president, will preside on next Tuesday. The particular business to be discussed is the Red Cross seal sales. These seals bring money for a needy cause and serve a very convenient purpose in shipping Christmas packages.

The people of La Grande were given a rare musical treat last Monday evening through the efforts of Mrs. Eric Carlock—to whom the honor is due—by bringing Beatrice Dierke of Portland to this city. And of all who attended none were disappointed as she fulfilled every promise. Beatrice Dierke is the best equipped and most interesting artist to visit this city. Her playing is not merely technique—she possesses that temperament which distinguishes the "artist" from the "pianiste."

Her playing in general displays a round and beautiful tone, passages of crystal clearness, refined tonal shadings, and is characterized by a wonderful technique, and a masterly interpretation, which ranks her as one of the foremost pianist artists of the northwest. Her selections were: Carnival..... Robert Schumann Preamble, Pierrot, Harlequin, Valse noble, Eschins, Coquette, Replique, Papillons, Letters Danzantes, Chiarina, Chopin, Estrella, Reconnoissance, Pantalon et Columbine, Valse Allemande, Paganini, Aveu, Pause, Marche des Davids—bundler" contre les Philistines. Six Variations—"Nel cor piu"..... Beethoven March a la Turque—"Ruins of Athens"..... Beethoven Etude in D Flat..... Liszt Arabesque..... Marion Bauer Prelude—"Where Rolls the Oregon"..... Marion Bauer Le Cygne..... Saint-Saens Pizzicato from Silvia...Delibes-Joseffy Arabesques on Johann Strauss' Valse "The Blue Danube"..... Schulz Evier Magic Fire Stone from Wagner

Next Tuesday evening is to be the first of a series of five or more informal parties during the winter and in which one of the chief qualifications to the membership list is the marriage certificate. Married men are to be the hostesses and invitations will only be issued from members to a friend. The club aims to hold some very pleasant evenings and most of the parties will be held on Tuesday evenings, hence the name, Tuesday Dancing club.

Tonight En Bager's Dusen club will be host at what purports to be the stellar social function among the younger set this fall and early winter. The young men will entertain their young folk guests at Honan hall (the new Guild hall) and decorations that smack of originality, taste and hard labor will greet the guests. The grand march commences at 8:30 o'clock. The hosts tonight will be all the members of the club. This roster is:

Fritts Lottes, Winseld Eckley, Milton Stoddard, Lee Reynolds, Russell Ralston, Victor Melville Lynne Bohnenkamp, Hal Bohnenkamp, Cecil Bolton, John Ruby, Merlin Batler, Willard Carpy, Harley Richardson.

A large and appreciative audience was in attendance at the song recital given by the Lyle Tuesday Musicals on last Tuesday afternoon. The program arranged by Madamos Corbett and Irwin was given as announced previously and every number was well rendered.

The next meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Pollack and Mrs. Rechlin on Dec. 5th.

The South La Grande Thimble club was entertained yesterday by Mrs. Earl Zundell. The occasion was attended by a few special guests who, with the regular members were Mrs. E. C. Tuckey, Mrs. J. F. Campbell, Mrs. St. Johns, Mrs. Rosenbaum, Mrs. George Stoddard, Mrs. Jess Pajil and Mrs. J. W. Bush. Refreshments were served.

William P. McCubbin and Josephine D. McCubbin were married by Rev. Maynard R. Thompson at the home of S. K. Baker, North Fir street, Thursday afternoon. The bride is a member of the Baptist church here. Mr. McCubbin is from Huntington, where they will make their future home. They had been divorced but the former home relation will be happily restored.

Mrs. Nate Zweifel was hostess to the New Idea club this week entertaining at her home on East Adams avenue. Among the guests present were: Mrs. C. C. Bull, Mrs. Charles Murchison, Mrs. Jess Paul, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Ben Noyes, Mrs. Frank Bay and Mrs. Earl Zundell.

Dancing, an oyster supper and a jolly good time is in store for those who journey to Hot Lake tonight to participate in the dancing festivities. Heacock's orchestra will supply the music and the management expects a large attendance of city folk.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle entertains the Five Hundred club at dinner next Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Gene Moore who is here visiting friends. Mrs. Moore spent last winter in the city and has a large circle of friends in La Grande.

Mrs. Chester P. Newlin and Mrs. Adolph Newlin at the home of the former, were hostesses to the evening Faffee Klatch last night. The honors were won by W. W. Berry and Mrs. M. B. Donohue.

Miss Olive Massee entertained a few girl friends Wednesday evening, at a thimble hour. Needlecraft and refreshments were the program features.

Because of Thanksgiving affairs next week it is not likely that the card clubs will hold their regular weekly sessions.

Mrs. Jay Van Buren entertained the Bridge club this week. Honors went to Mrs. Gene Moore.

The La Jaunesse club was entertained this week by Mrs. A. W. Nelson.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

WHY is it that as soon as a young man who begins to work hard and save his money the neighbors all begin to wonder which girl it is?

Give a dog a bad name and you can soon have a new fur rug.

A boy never appreciates his mother's cooking until he has boarded at the restaurant a spell.

The great trouble with a man who has a good story is that he never forgets it.

In these degenerate days a general election doesn't furnish nearly as much excitement as a pennant contest.

A man will boast of his fortitude in bearing pain and then howl just because his wife steps on his corns.

The summer girl has vanished into the dim past, but the oncoming winter girl is just as expensive.

Some men's idea of heaven is a place where they won't have to dress up.

"Nerves" cover a multitude of spiteful tempers.

The glad hand sometimes conceals a ligmon.
