Mrs. McCully Loses Purse.

Raymond Swan, who resides at 1434 Fourth street, has established a record for honesty which it will pay other young men to emulate, says the Baker Herald. Sunday evening he found a purse containing $60 or more and from the contents learned that it might belong to Mrs. McCully of Joseph. A return railroad ticket from Baker to Joseph and other valuables were included with the money in the purse.

Early on Monday morning Mr. Swan was looking over the city for the owner of the purse.

Mr. Swan is a Baker product of childhood, having been born and brought up in this city. Lately he has suffered from a severe attack of rheumatism, which malady has left him too weak for heavy work. From boyhood he has been a helpful member of Baker's volunteer fire department, and he has been active in the clean sports and enterprises of Baker's young athletes. He is so modest that he was not anxious to have it known who found the purse.

ENTERPRISE WINS FIGHT

WILL ENTERTAIN EASTERN OREGON TEACHERS NEXT.

Pendleton Threatens to Withdraw From the Association.

Enterprise was selected as the next meeting place of the Eastern Oregon Teachers' convention next year, bringing that convention into Walla Walla county for the first time in history. Enterprise was chosen after a stormy session in which Pendleton, the other contender for the distinction, threatened to withdraw. It is said, from the association unless granted the request. The matter was settled by a vote giving Enterprise the choice. Today noon no further effort had been made by Pendleton to withdraw and it is believed the threat came in the heat of excitement.

The La Grande delegation is expected home this afternoon.
