FOUR ARRESTED FOR FIGHTING

ONE PLEADS GUILTY AND OTHERS STAND TRIAL.

Representative for Strikers Aserts that Hartman Didn't Mean to Commit Act

As the outcome of another near-riot last night directly and indirectly connected with the troubles between the strikers and strikerbreakers, four men were arrested about 9 o'clock last evening, and one of the quartet pleaded guilty this morning when arraigned before Recorder Humphreys to a disorderly and fighting charge.

A man named Alexander, who, it is said, looks after affairs for the strikers from the standpoint of a federation representative, appeared before Recorder Humphreys soon after Hartman had pleaded guilty and raised some discussion about the $25 fine that had been attached to Hartman.

The trial tomorrow will probably refill the council chamber as it was today at frequent intervals.

RUSSIAN TROOPS WARN

whose supporters declare that Russia has placed a price on his head.

Shuster today admitted that several attempts had failed, owing to the alertness of his guards and he said he would not allow Russia's demands to interfere with his plan of monetary reforms and would stay with the job unless the government wished to recall him.

Shuster Offers Resignation.

Opposed in his scheme for reorganization of Persia by both English and Russian agents Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer general of Persia today presented his resignation. It followed the refusal of the Persian parliament to expel him from the country as England and Russia demanded.

Three Weddings Celebrated.

Justice of the Peace Williams had his marriage ceremonies well rehearsed last Wednesday evening when he married three couples. Two of these were Elgin people and while J. G. Breashears and Clara Rysdam, both of Elgin, were being united in marriage, Montia Witty and Edie Breashears also of Elgin, were interested spectators to the ceremony.

The third couple was Frank Hemlick and Bessie Fleming, both of North Powder.

Euds Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
