NEW SINGER AT ISIS.

James Diamond Will Act as Isis Soloist.

C. P. Ferrin, the popular La Grande tenor who has been delighting audiences at the Isis continuously for a long time, is taking a well earned rest, and a worthy successor has been found by the management in the person of James Diamond, baritone vocalist, who has sung his way into popularity through every state in the union. Mr. Diamond's repertoire includes the latest popular songs as also many ballads and classics composed for a voice of his range and compass. His voice is a pleasing baritone, not so heavy as to interfere with his rendition of light and shade passages in the higher register.

Mr. Diamond is a recent arrival in La Grande and intends to make this city his home. He is a member of the choir of the local Catholic church and is held in high estimation by those of the church who know him and know of him. Patrons of the Isis always well catered for, will find a welcome addition to the Isis staff of entertainers in Mr. Diamond.

His opening number given tomorrow, Sunday night, will be that grand and favorite solo, "The Palms." (Les Fameaux.)
