

Saved His Wife's Life.
 "My wife would have been in her grave today," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, influenza, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of burns, boils, plies, cuts, sores, bruises, eczema and sprains. Only 25c at all druggists.

If you are troubled with chronic constipation, the mild and gentle effect of Chamberlain's Tablets makes them especially suited to your case. For sale by all dealers.

"DO IT NOW" is an old saw, but it applies to nothing so vitally as to the care of your teeth. There's a reason why you should call at STEVENSON'S DENTAL OFFICE if you want your teeth put in good condition, in fact there are several reasons. Reliable work and fees consistent with same.

WITHYCOMBE IS MAYOR ASPIRANT

COMMERCIAL CLUB AT UNION TO REORGANIZE.

Big Banquet to be Spread Before the Commercial Representatives.

WITHYCOMBE FOR MAYOR.

The report having gained some standing relative to the location of the experiment station as bearing upon the candidacy of Robt. Withycombe for mayor, the Republican is advised that the lines have been traced out within the past week, and the station is found to be within the city limits by one fourth of a mile. As we understand it, the east line of the city runs about the old electric light plant—Union Republican.

(Union Scout.)

The committee, Wm. Vogel, R. H. Rohrig and M. F. Davis of the Commercial club, have made all arrangements to have an up to date banquet at the Union restaurant next Wednesday evening at 7:30.

The proprietors of this restaurant have proven to the public on former occasions that they know how to serve the people and they will maintain their reputation at this banquet by giving all in attendance the value of their money.

The best of the feast that is prepared, however, is the talk or address to be given by E. F. Ayers of the O. A. C. who will speak on the good roads subject. Every citizen who is interested in this topic, which should include everyone, should be present to hear the speaker. Efforts are being made to have present with us Judge Henry of La Grande and Senator Pierce of Hot Lake and no doubt the club will be successful in this part of the program.

A small admission will be charged but everyone attending will be amply repaid. The club is starting out at this time with a great deal of earnestness and with proper support will be enabled to do untold service for the benefit of the citizens and business men of our city. Everyone should boost for the club and come out and enjoy the good things they prepare, both for the body and the mind.

Will Plant Catnip (1)

(Union Republican.)

L. H. Stover was down from his High Valley ranch Tuesday. Mr. Stover is arranging to sow his ranch to catnip, to supply the demand likely to ensue through the starting of the cat ranch referred to in the Republican a short time since. As a range for cats Mr. Stover rather thinks he has the best.

Steals Valuable Coat.

Some thief, without the fear of the law before his eyes, stole an overcoat belonging to J. W. Ethington from the Centennial hotel Sunday last, while Mr. Ethington was in at dinner. Marshal Huffman at once searched the room of a suspected party but was unable to find the coat, which was worth about $25.

THE DUTCH MILKMAID.

Her Picturesque Costume and Her Robust Style of Beauty.

Of all Zealand the particular costume of that province can be observed to the best advantage on the island of Waikare.

A milkmaid of Middelburg, for example, is a joy to look upon. Her spotless white cap bristles at the temples with kuzzenkrullen like the antennae of a prehistoric beetle. Her skirts are ankle high and padded generously at the hips. If she be naturally round and the skirts need no padding circumstantial evidence of the fact is sufficient to stamp her the belle of the community.

The sleeves of her bodice are very short and very tight, pinching the arms above the elbows so that they might be mistaken for a pair of aggravated cases of inflammatory rheumatism. Of course the sun in all its glory strikes the backs of these arms, for she always walks with them akimbo, the better to balance the pails which dangle one from each end of a wooden yoke enameled a vivid robin's egg blue.

But the redder the arms from the rays of the sun and the tighter the pinch of the sleeves, the flatter the chest and the broader the hips, the sooner will she cease to be a mere milkmaid through the medium of a simple marriage ceremony in the village kerk.—Travel Magazine.

BRAINS IN BUSINESS.

The Way a Cigar Dealer Won a Big Office Building's Trade.

With the opening of a new business block in one of the largest cities in the middle west also came the inevitable cigar stand inside the building. Trade, however, came very slowly the first few weeks. In the rush of moving the business men gave very little attention to the new cigar stand.

It was not long before the proprietor of the stand began to feel uneasy and set about devising some scheme for stimulating trade. One morning about four weeks after the building had been opened every man in the building received a visit from the cigar stand proprietor, who carried around with him several boxes of cigars and a grip full of cigarettes. Every smoker was made a present of his favorite smoke. With his entrance into an office the enterprising dealer introduced himself, asked each man to have a smoke and politely intimated that he would be glad to cater to him in future.

His outlay for the free smokes amounted to over $25, but it paid in returns a thousand per cent. Practically every smoker in the building is now a firm patron of his stand, not merely because of the free gift, but because as business men they recognized a smart piece of enterprise.—Business.

Located His Home.

"When the late Amos Cummings was doing newspaper work in New York," said a representative from that city, "he owned a home in a row of buildings painted white. On more than one occasion Cummings made a mistake and got in the wrong house, his mind being occupied with news of the day and wondering if any of the opposition papers would get in a 'scoop' on him. He grew tired of getting in the wrong pew and determined that he would end it. One morning there was an advertisement in his paper for twelve painters, and the following day they went to work on Cummings' house and it was painted the most flaming red that eyes ever beheld. Some of the neighbors and property owners protested, but there was no law to prevent a house owner from painting it just as his fancy dictated. "After this the wornout newspaper man never had any trouble in making a proper landing when he left his office in the 'wee small hours.'"—Washington Star.

Eccentric England.

There are one or two place names in England which for eccentricity it would be hard to beat, even in Canada. Cornwall boasts of a village called Drunkards All and of a titling called London Apprentice. The name of another Cornish village—Grumbia—sounds worse when spoken than it looks in print. The same may be said of the neighboring village of St. Eval which is always pronounced "Sandeval." Bishop Philpotts asked a candidate for ordination where he came from. "St. Eval," was the reply. "Dear me," remarked the bishop: "I know that Cornishmen venerate St. Tudy, St. Cuby, St. Uny and other saints unknown to the calendar, but I was not aware they had canonized him!"—London Chronicle.
