CENTRAL BODY PLAN REVIVED

MEETING HELD AT SPOKANE RECENTLY.

Sherwood Williams, Local Orchardist, Attends—Interest Is Keen.

(Portland Journal.)
 In an effort to unite the Pacific northwest into a central organization for the sale of apples, the promoters of the Central Fruit Marketing exchange have established 12 districts, in which is expected to be included all the apples of the four states.

While dubious that such a large organization can be made sufficiently yielding to enable the promoters to do justice to each and every district, sentiment in favor of the plan is increasing. The fact that the exchange would classify the fruit of the better known districts with sections not so well known and for which product the public will not pay high prices, is expected to cause much dissatisfaction.

The proposed districts are as follows:

- District 1—Southern Oregon—Jackson and Josephine counties.
- District 2—Willamette valley—Douglas, Lane, Benton, Linn, Marion, Polk, Yamhill, Clackamas, Multnomah, Washington and Columbia counties.
- District 3—Lower Columbia—Hood river, Wasco, Sherman and Wheeler counties.
- District 4—Yakima—Yakima, Kittitas and Benton counties.
- District 5—Wenatchee—Chelan, Okanogan and Douglas counties.
- District 6—Inland Empire—Spokane, Stevens, Kootenai and upper Whitman counties.
- District 7—Snake river—Latah, Nez Perce, lower Whitman, Asotin and Garfield counties.
- District 8—Southern Idaho—Washington, Boise, Elmore, Ada, Canyon and Malheur counties.
- District 9—Eastern Oregon—Union and Baker counties.
- District 10—Walla Walla—Walla Walla, Columbia and Umatilla counties.
- District 11—Montana.
- District 12—Western Washington.

Sherwood Williams an orchardist: of this city recently returned from Spokane where he attended a meeting of the general committee, holding a session to devise ways and means. Mr. Williams was the first secretary of the association, being elected at the original organization meeting in Portland. The general scheme is similar to that used by the Northwest Exchange but is co-operative.
